Ohio Youth Is 'Serious' After Crash

An 18-year-old Ohio youth, returning home to attend graduation exercises tomorrow, was in "serious" condition in Warren General Hospital the result of an auto accident this morning on Mohawk Ave., Pleasant Township.

WILLIAM Hoag, 18, Kile Road, Huntsburg, Ohio, a passenger in a car operated by Chadwick J. Gratton, 20, Chardon, Ohio, sustained a severe scalp laceration and a possible skull fracture when he was thrown from the car.

According to witnesses, the Gratton car failed to negotiate a curve on a hill heading into Warren, and flipped over twice.

HOAG was thrown into the ditch. Gratton displayed no visible injuries. The pair, members of a four-man group, were returning home after spending a week camping at Chapman Dam.

The victim was scheduled to attend commencement exercises at Cardinal High School, Chardon. One of the youths said he would remain in Warren until Hoag is out of danger.

THE North Warren Ambulance responded to the call, taking the youth to the hospital. He was admitted at 12:45 p. m., a hospital spokesman said.

Several witnesses reported hearing the noise from several hundred yards away. The two other members of the group who were following in another car, witnessed the mishap and stopped to give aid.

FROM the point where the car left the highway to where it finally halted, right side up, the area was littered with items from the car.

State Police from the Warren sub-station are continuing to investigate.

Class of 1962 Will Graduate From WAHS

The Warren Area High School Class of 1962 officially marks the end of 12 years of schooling tonight when graduating seniors receive their diplomas at the 85th commencement exercises to be held in the school auditorium.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. Frederick B. Haer, pastor of First Lutheran Church.

FOLLOWING the presentation of the three valedictory speeches, Capt. James I. Miller, director of operational planning for Eastern Air Lines, Inc., will deliver the commencement address. He will be introduced by Melvin G. Keller, president of the Warren Area Joint School Board.

Miller is a native of Warren and a graduate of Warren High. He joined Eastern Airlines in 1945, serving as line pilot, check pilot, assistant chief pilot and assistant manager of operations at LaGuardia Airport in New York City.

LAST February he was promoted from assistant operations manager for the operations at Idlewild Airport to assistant to the president. This February he was named director of operational —See 'Class,' Pg. 10

Carpenters Back on Some Construction Projects

Striking carpenters returned to several Warren County construction projects on Tuesday.

MEMBERS of Local 1014, International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, AFL-CIO, signed a two-year contract with the Beyer Construction Co., thus ending a dispute that began June 1.

The walkout caused limited work stoppage on the Court House project, Kresge's and a portion of the Sheffield School project.

Upon expiration of the old contract, on June 1, the carpenters had asked for a one year contract with a 25-cent wage increase, to be effective immediately.

OFFICIALS of the Beyer Co., had originally offered a two-year contract with pay raises totaling 45 cents over the two-year period.

Union officials rejected this offer. On Tuesday, however, they dropped their demand for a one-year contract and signed for the 25-cent increase for two years.

WORK on two other county construction projects remain halted because of a dispute between Local 836, Construction and General Labor Union, Bradford and the Swanson Construction Co., Bradford.

Several weeks ago, union members began picketing the recently begun Sugar Grove Elementary School project and a portion of the Sheffield School project.

A spokesman for the union said this morning that negotiations have broken down and no date has been set for a new meeting.

THE dispute began when the Swanson Co. refused to sign an agreement with the union which would have meant a wage increase.

The agreement covers a six-county area. The spokesman said all contractors in the Warren area would be affected. —See 'Carpenters,' Pg. 10

Gilbert "Jim" Reier, who calls The Times-Mirror every morning with the weather statistics used in the T-M Almanac, announced today that "somebody left the air conditioning on last night."

Indeed they did. Minimum: 43 degrees.

Kennedy-McCormack Showdown Due

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Kennedy-McCormack battle for the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator from Massachusetts comes to a peak today with the opening of the state party convention.

Locked in a tight contest, with both sides claiming victory, are Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, youngest brother of the President, and Edward J. McCormack Jr., nephew of the speaker of the U.S. House, John W. McCormack of Massachusetts.

Their goal is the Senate seat once held by the President, who first won it in 1952 and resigned it in 1960 when he was elected President.

Kennedy's supporters claim they have more than 1,000 of the 1,725 delegates sewed up. The McCormack forces put their rock bottom strength at better than 900.

As the convention drew near, McCormack charged Kennedy had voted only twice since he reached voting age—both times when his brother was a candidate.

The session opens at 1 p. m. Eastern Standard Time at the Springfield Municipal Auditorium, with registration, reports of the credentials and rules committees, and election of a permanent chairman and secretary.

The balloting for the senatorial endorsement comes Friday, the second day of the three-day session.

Kennedy is barely old enough to run for senator. He turned 30 last Feb. 22, and announced his candidacy three weeks after reaching the minimum age for a senator.

McCormack is 38, a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and Boston University Law School.

Kennedy was graduated from Harvard College in 1956 and the University of Virginia law school in 1959. Until he became a candidate, he served as a $1-a-year assistant district attorney in Suffolk County (Boston).

Kennedy is making his first try for public office.

McCormack was elected to the Boston City Council three times starting in 1953, was elected attorney general to fill a vacancy in 1958, and won reelection for two-year terms twice after that.

The convention decision is not final. The winner of the endorsement automatically gets first place on the ballot for the party primary in September. The loser may contest the endorsed candidate by filing nomination papers with 2,500 signatures.

Both Kennedy and McCormack have indicated they will fight it out in the primary regardless of the convention decision.

OAS Breaks Algeria 'Truce,' Resumes Reign of Terrorism

Two OAS Assassins Executed

PARIS (AP)—Two Secret Army killers were executed at dawn today—the first to be sent before a firing squad—but ex-Gen. Edmond Jouhaud remained in the death row he had shared with them.

The fate of Jouhaud, 57, deputy commander of the underground terrorist army, still rested with President De Gaulle. There was an indication De Gaulle would spare his life.

The first executions came a few hours after the Secret Army in a private broadcast in Algiers reported a deadlock in its talks with the Moslem nationalists and said, "We are again taking up war—particularly in the economic field."

The broadcast advised women, children and older Europeans to leave Algeria to "free the men for the scorched earth campaign."

Southeast of Paris at Fort Du Trou d'Enfer (Hell Hole Fort) rifle volleys followed by two pistol shots—the customary coups de grace—rang out at 4:12 a. m. They brought death to Albert Dovecar, 37, a former sergeant in the Foreign Legion, and Claude Piegts, 27, a civilian.

They had been convicted of slaying a police commissioner in Algiers on March 31, 1961.

Dovecar and Piegts refused blindfolds as they faced the firing squad. "Aim at the heart!" shouted Piegts. Just before the shots rang out, he cried: "Vive l'Algerie Francaise!" (long live French Algeria).

"Vive l'Autriche (Austria)! Vive la Legion!" shouted Dovecar.

The bodies were buried in nearby Thiais Cemetery.

Dovecar was a native of Yugoslavia and lived in Austria before joining the Foreign Legion in 1957. Piegts was an insurance agent in Algiers.

Two Killed

BEL AIR, Md. (AP)—Two persons were killed and three others injured today in a traffic accident on U.S. 40 between Aberdeen and Edgewood in Harford County.

State police said the injured were taken to the Harford Memorial Hospital in Havre de Grace.

Tax Revision Bill in Trouble

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's tax revision bill appeared in deeper trouble today after being criticized sharply at a closed meeting of Democratic senators.

Opponents of the bill said privately they were convinced now there was a good chance it eventually will be dropped. And Republicans voiced such a demand in floor speeches Wednesday.

However, Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., who opposes the measure's two key provisions, told a reporter the finance committee he heads will continue its consideration of the tax bill.

Senate Foreign Aid Ruling Comes as Jolt

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has jolted the Kennedy administration by directing that no slice of next year's foreign aid pie go to a Communist or Marxist dominated nation.

While Secretary of State Dean Rusk was lamenting Wednesday's Senate action as most unfortunate, administration leaders marshaled their forces to fight off another onslaught on the $4.7-billion authorization measure—an effort to lop off $400 million.

The aid restriction—still to be considered by the House—is aimed directly at Yugoslavia and Poland, the two Communist nations which receive U.S. help.

The administration takes the view that by assisting the two it acts to weaken them away from domination by the Soviet Union. But the amendment's author, Sen. Frank Lausche, D-Ohio, declared in Wednesday's debate that any aid granted to a Communist country "can never be in the interest of the security of the United States—it can only be in the interest of the promulgation of international communism."

The Lausche amendment passed by a 57-24 vote when 34 Democrats turned a deaf ear to a White House plea and sided with 23 Republicans. Voting with the administration were 18 Democrats and 6 Republicans.

If accepted by the House, which has yet to act on its version of the bill, the amendment would specifically prohibit $10 million in development loans to Yugoslavia next fiscal year, and ban shipments of surplus agricultural commodities to Yugoslavia and Poland.

The Senate acted within minutes after Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana read a White House letter protesting the cut as an action which would "play into the hands of those who

French To Be Taught In Conewango Schools

A foreign language will be introduced into the Conewango Township School system this fall. Board members at a meeting last night announced the hiring of a French teacher.

MRS. Helena Iseman, principal said Mrs. Wade Barre, 19 Warren Blvd., will teach French to the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. She will be at the school for a day and a half each week. Specific details are expected to be worked out when Mrs. Barre meets with other area principals.

Board members authorized Mrs. Iseman to purchase audio visual and science equipment for the two schools.

THE school system will be reimbursed 50 per cent of the total cost in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Defense Education Act.

Board members reported that some 52 children availed themselves to pre-school testing at the North Warren School while 20 were tested at the Starbrick building.

IT is expected that 60 first graders will enroll at North Warren in the fall. Another 29 are expected to enter the first grade at Starbrick.

Moslems Slain In New Attacks

ALGIERS (AP)—The Secret Army Organization struck again today as promised, returning to its terror campaign by mowing down Moslems and setting fire to Algiers University, Algeria's main seat of learning.

Three phosphorous bombs shattered the inside of the massive science and medicine building as the terrorists carried the threat of a scorched earth campaign into the heart of the city.

Firemen gave up hope of saving the main building as flames roared out of the large windows. Black smoke shrouded the heart of Algiers.

Crowds of Europeans and French soldiers watched the blaze from the sidewalk of Rue Michelet and adjacent Boulevard St. Saens. Wind-whipped flames seared the treetops of the university garden.

Earlier today, European terrorists struck at groups of Moslems with pistol and machine-gun attacks, killing four Moslems.

The precarious truce which gave the city a new breath of life during the past seven days thus came to a shattering end.

Home Blaze Kills Father, Five Children

PALMYRA, Pa. (AP)—A father and his five young children burned to death in their home 3½ miles north of this Lebanon County community early today.

Fire officials at the scene identified the dead as Charles Franklin Neiswender, 27, and his children, Natalie, 6; Kathy Ann, 5; Charles, 4; Carl, 3; and Terry, 1.

Neiswender's wife, Peggy, was committed to Lebanon's Good Samaritan Hospital and treated for burns and shock.

She told firemen her husband had told her to jump from the window of the family's five-room, one-story frame cottage and he would take care of the children.

JFK Picks McCloskey As Envoy to Ireland

WASHINGTON (AP)—Matthew H. McCloskey, 69-year-old Philadelphia contractor and Democratic fund raiser, has been nominated by President Kennedy as ambassador to Ireland—land of his forebears.

McCloskey, whose nomination was expected to go to the Senate today, would succeed Grant Stockdale, a Miami real estate man, on July 6.

Formal announcement of the nomination was made Wednesday by Kennedy.

McCloskey was Democratic party treasurer from 1955 until he resigned last April. By his own estimate he raised well over $25 million. He is credited with starting the $100-a-plate dinner, which has been of benefit to both Democrats and Republicans.

Active for 30 years in party politics, McCloskey will be honored at a testimonial dinner here Saturday night in recognition of his work on behalf of the Democratic National Committee. Kennedy probably will attend. Former President Harry S. Truman said he will participate.

McCloskey, born in Wheeling, W. Va., in 1893, the grandson of Irish immigrants, was two years old when his family moved to Philadelphia. He has lived in the city ever since, building up a big industrial and commercial construction enterprise which bears his name.

In politics, McCloskey always has moved behind the scenes. He says he never found it tough to raise money for political campaigns.

Dilworth Sees Demo Triumph In Philadelphia

TOWANDA, Pa. (AP)—Richardson Dilworth, Democratic candidate for governor, says the Democrats will "do well in Philadelphia" in the general election in November.

Dilworth made the statement Wednesday night at a dinner of party leaders.

Repeating his support of the school re-organization program and the state highways program, Dilworth said: "We intend to give Pennsylvania the finest system anywhere in the nation."

Dilworth told political leaders that the party that "does the real work between now and November will win."

The former mayor of Philadelphia was accompanied here by William Gombor of Scranton, the Democratic candidate for Congress from the 10th District. Dilworth shook hands and talked individually with party workers at a reception attended by about 150.

TAX RELIEF

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to grant handicapped persons an income tax exemption of up to $900 to cover the cost of travel to and from work was proposed Wednesday by Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa.

Hearing Set On Turnpike Fee Splitting

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Real Estate Commission hopes to open hearings next month in connection with reports that Turnpike Commissioner John F. Byrne split fees illegally in a recent land deal in Philadelphia.

Commission Chairman John J. Turchi said Wednesday, Byrne, a licensed realtor, reportedly paid John J. Fitzpatrick $7,500 for assisting him in purchasing land for the Liberty Bell Trotting track in northeast Philadelphia.

State law prohibits such splitting of fees with unlicensed personnel, Turchi noted.

Fitzpatrick, former sergeant-at-arms of the Philadelphia City Council, is not a licensed realtor. Turchi said a definite hearing date will be announced after the commission completes its investigation of the Liberty Bell land transaction.

Cyclops Steel Plant Idled By Walkout

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Some 1,600 employees at the nearby Bridgeville plant of Universal Cyclops Steel Corp. were idled Wednesday by a work stoppage. The dispute reportedly centers around the refusal of eight employees to do jobs assigned by a supervisor.

The steel firm called the work stoppage a violation of the labor contract.

Sixty-seven workers were given three-day furloughs for setting up picket lines, the company said, and another employee was furloughed for five days as the instigator of the walkout Tuesday.

Other plant workers would not cross the picket lines Wednesday. The employees are represented by Local 178, United Steelworkers.

Channel Chatter

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—There's a television tale, possibly untrue, about the prolific script-writer who turned out mystery stories on a production line basis. His secret was to have his secretary hand him, every few days, three different objects—a fan, a marble and a burned-out flashlight bulb, for example. Then he would proceed to rip off a story around these clues.

Television through the seasons has streamlined the "instant plot" technique to a point where—at least from this viewer's observation post—the script writers can and do turn out their daily quota by writing a whole show around a given line of dialogue.

It's really not hard. Just try some of the following tried, true and tired lines yourself. You may discover that you, too, have a future as a TV author.

"You owe me $40,000, Miss Wadley-Jones, and I don't think your father would be very happy to hear you are a compulsive gambler. However, I know a way you can square things—I'll even burn the IOUs."

"I hope you're right in your diagnosis, doctor. But even if we do operate now, it will be touch and go."

"It doesn't matter what he has done, lieutenant. He is entitled to the very best defense we can give him."

"Staying in town long friend? We don't cotton to strangers here much."

Really, there's nothing to it. Shirley Booth's "Hazel" climbed to the top of Nielsen's popularity list, followed closely by "The Gary Moore Show" and "The Andy Griffith Show." Wagon Train, "Gunsmoke" and "Bonanza," the three Westerns which have been leading the hit parade all season, dropped down in the list—maybe heralding the end of the sagebrush saga fad?

Recommended tonight: "Brenner," CBS, 9-9:30 (Eastern Daylight Time)—Summer reruns of a police story with Edward Binns and James Broderick; "Hazel," NBC, 9:30-10—Shirley Booth stars in just about the only program of the evening that is not a re-broadcast.

Personnel Cuts Believed Saving to Erie Taxpayers

ERIE — Personnel cuts by the Williamson administration may mean a saving of $200,000 to $300,000, and could result in a tax cut in the city of Erie if the substantial savings remains firm throughout the year.

The savings will come about through the dismissal or retirement of 50 regular employees, earning approximately $4,000 a year, according to City Controller Arthur E. Gehrlin.

Gehrlin added that seasonal employment could alter the figures somewhat. Further personnel cuts are expected in the city's water bureau later in the year, and there are several other departments yet to undergo re-organization.

Controllers records show 1,042 city employees to date, as compared with 1,100 for the same month in 1961.

To Visit Italy

NORTH EAST — Harriet Miller, a Junior at North East Joint High School, has been selected by the American Field Service's "Americans Abroad" program to spend the summer in Turin, Italy. Harriet will live with an English-Italian speaking family of four. She will sail from Montreal, Canada, on June 15.

54 To Graduate

OIL CITY — Diplomats will be presented to 54 graduates of St. Joseph's High School tonight by the Most Rev. Edward P. McManaman, STD., auxiliary bishop of the Erie Diocese and pastor of St. Joseph's parish. Commencement speaker will be Rev. Homer C. DeWalt, assistant superintendent of the Erie Diocese Department of Education.

Street Survey Set

JAMESTOWN — Winter-ravaged streets will be surveyed next week by the city council's highway committee, prior to the annual street repair and surfacing projects. A total of $74,000 has been earmarked for streets repairs in the city budget.

Custody Dispute

UNION CITY — Three-year-old Richard Beers is the center of a custody dispute between his natural parents and his temporary guardians.

The boy was delivered by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beers, the boy's natural parents, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Martin, friends of the Beers family.

On Oct. 5, 1960, the Martins delivered three-year-old Richard to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Caldwell, without permission, according to the defending lawyer.

Mrs. Caldwell, who took the child when Mrs. Martin's heart condition would not allow proper care, said that Richard was in poor physical condition and suffering nightmares when she took the child.

Hearings Slated

BRADFORD — The hearing on the township's protest against the city's annexation of acreage including the site of the new Bradford Central Christian High School continues this afternoon.

At yesterday's session it was reported by the city solicitor that the Most Rev. John Mark Gannon, Archbishop-Bishop of Erie, had made the petition for the annexation to obtain "improved city services," complete and adequate fire and police protection; water at lower cost; improved garbage and especially sewer service.

Township officials claim that annexation would create a geographic anomaly, would be "one step in the plan for further annexation," would show disadvantages to the township and that the land in question is "not contiguous" and therefore not annexable.

The school, scheduled to open in September, will house 550 pupils.

To View Housing

TITUSVILLE — FHA representatives conferred Wednesday with city officials and other interested persons on the poor condition of the World War II housing development at Sunset Heights.

City officials suggest that vacant and dilapidated buildings be torn down and replaced by single dwellings.

No action was taken at the conference, but one FHA representative advised that the wisest course would be for the city to undertake the problem as a redevelopment project with federal assistance.

Employment Hike

LAKE CITY — Construction of a $1 million plant by the Copes-Vulcan division of Blaw-Knox Co., Pittsburgh, will boost employment of the Erie area 600 or more. The company now has a total employed force of about 450.

Copes-Vulcan division are manufacturers of mechanical soot blowers and boiler controls. The new plant will absorb one other of the company's two Erie plants.

Two Women Hurt

FRENCH CREEK — Two Corry women were injured by flying glass when the car in which they were riding collided with a deer near French Creek, N. Y.

Mrs. Wallace M. Young, 65, Wright St., Corry, and Mrs. Marian Harmon, 36, RD 3 Corry, were treated by their family physicians. The driver of the car, Ellmear Wassink, 42, was uninjured.

Senior Debaters Win

JAMESTOWN — The senior debate team of Jamestown High School successfully argued "Membership in the European Common Market by the United States," to win the 41st annual Charles E. Hall debate held in Merwin Corwin auditorium yesterday.

Members of the winning senior team are Sally Harderburg, David Beckman, and Gaylord Thayer. The losing junior team was comprised of Geoffrey Sigworth, Louis Bellardo, and Mark Caman.

The debate was established in 1921 by the late Frederick P. Hall in honor of his son, a former president of the JHS debate club, who died in 1919 while a member of the senior class.

New Jersey Man Drowns Diving In Delaware

NARROWSBURG, N.Y. (AP)—A 27-year-old New Jersey man drowned Wednesday while skin-diving in the Delaware River as his wife and two small children watched from a small boat.

The body of Robert Miller, of Butler, N.J., was pulled from 12 feet of water seven hours after he disappeared in the river near this New York community which borders the Pennsylvania state line.

Coroner Robert Jennings of Wayne County, Pa., ruled the death a drowning.

Four Men Named To PSU Board

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Four men, representing the interests of agriculture and industry, were re-elected to new three year terms Wednesday on the Board of Trustees at Pennsylvania State University.

The four are George M. Anthony of Strasstown and R. Johnston Gillan of St. Thomas, representing agriculture; and H. Thomas Hallowell Jr. of Jenkintown and Walter W. Patchell of Philadelphia, representing industry.

Hollywood Reporting

By BOB THOMAS

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Those who despair over the monumental costs of "Cleopatra" and "Mutiny on the Bounty" may find some solace in the "Spartacus" record.

The gladiators-and-gore epic was termed Universal's folly when Kirk Douglas was producing and starring in it. The bill kept mounting with retakes and retakes of the retakes until the total came to a reported $11 million.

Now Douglas reports a golden lining.

"By the end of this year, the picture is expected to have brought in $20 million," said the actor. "That will mean a good profit, and the run is by no means milked. It's also the kind of picture you could bring back every five years or so."

Belle Vernon Middie Is First To Marry

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—John F. Hewitt, of Belle Vernon, Pa., was first in the parade of midshipmen who were married in the Naval Academy after graduation Wednesday.

Hewitt, president of the senior class and captain of the 1961 football team, married Lorraine Karp of Clifton, N. J.

They left the chapel under an arch of crossed swords, the first of 40 June Week couples to do so.

By some mathematical magic, ordinary films are supposed to double their cost in receipts before showing a profit. That represents the added costs of distribution, advertising, interest, etc.

"But when a picture begins to cost many millions, that ratio no longer prevails," Douglas explained. "You can show a profit with less than double the cost."

"However, you couldn't prove it by me. I still haven't seen a dime of my share of 'Spartacus' and won't until it's securely in the profit column."

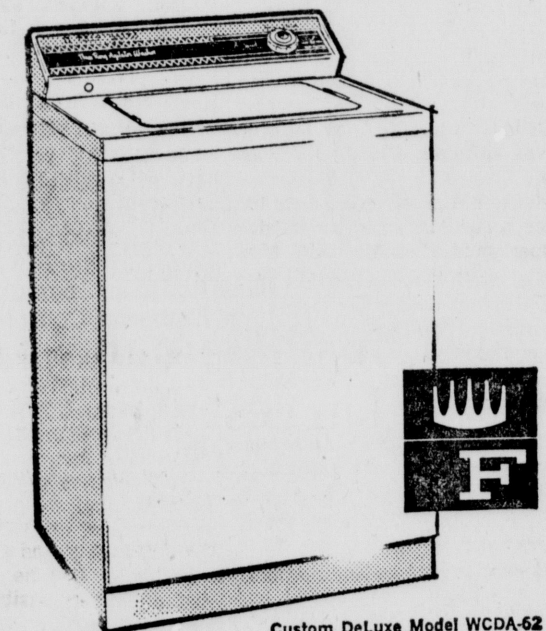

Douglas is now happily working for someone else—Perilberg and Seaton in "The Hook."

Otto Preminger muddled the Potomac with "Advise and Consent," his latest all-star, no-holds-barred movie. Much has already been said about what kind of a picture it displays of democracy at work and how it will be considered overseas.

The characters include: a candidate for secretary of state who lies under oath about previous Communist connections. A president who continues to support him, knowing this. A Senate majority leader who keeps house with the leading Washington hostess. A senator who would "rather crawl to Moscow" than risk war, who is constantly surrounded by four goons and who blackmails a colleague.

One previewer said she had no worries about how foreigners would take it: "There's so much talk, they won't understand it."

Dear Abby . . .

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I want to know if I am wrong in feeling very much annoyed over this incident. I recently called on a friend (by invitation) and I had only an hour to spend with her. While I was there (I hadn't been there ten minutes), her telephone rang. It was a mutual friend and not a long-distance call. My hostess hung on the phone for twenty minutes, making small talk, while I just sat there twiddling my thumbs and getting madder by the minute. She knew I had only an hour to spend with her. What should I have done?

DEAR STUMPED: You should have STUMPED out after the first five minutes.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter-in-law has just informed me that she doesn't want me or my husband spending too much time with our grandchildren (ages 2 and 5) because she doesn't want them picking up our "accents."

We are foreign-born, Miss Abby, and do have foreign accents, but I don't think this is any reason to keep the children away from us, do you? Once a week for one hour, I was told, was our limit. She said this in front of my son, and he didn't even open his mouth to defend us. What should we do?

FOREIGN ACCENTS

DEAR FOREIGN: There is nothing to do except to abide by her wishes if you want to see your grandchildren. You can feel sorry for such an unperceptive woman, and pity your son, who is obviously acting under her orders. Pray they wake up before it's too late.

DEAR ABBY: My husband's sister wants to come and live with us and go to school. There are better schools in her home town. She is a divorcee and has two children and is not yet 20. I have children, too. This has upset me something terrible. Abby, I don't have the nerve to write and tell her not to come, and yet I know if she were to come it would not work out. What should I do?

NERVOUS

DEAR NERVOUS: Let your husband tell her. It's HIS sister.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MISSING SOMETHING": What you are missing you can live without. Count your blessings. No woman has everything.

How's the world treating you? For a personal, unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

U. S. Studying European Growth

EDITOR'S NOTE—The Kennedy administration is studying Western Europe's tax, economic and budget policies in an effort to find out what makes Europe run while America walks. Reasons for these studies and their possible bearing on future U. S. fiscal policies are discussed in this third of four articles by AP economic affairs writer Sterling F. Green.

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is probing the growth possibilities in a European-style policy of neutral federal budgets—less concern over small and temporary deficits, less emphasis each year on surpluses.

President Kennedy has ordered his Council of Economic Advisors to study Western Europe's budget, tax and economic policies to find out, if it can, what makes Europe run while America walks.

Behind his decision is the fact that for the past five years the European allies have been expanding their output twice as fast as the United States. Some have gone beyond "full employment" and now have labor shortages.

Some reasons are evident—the swift development of the Common Market, the rush to raise living standards which still are far below this country's, different economic planning. Still other elements have caught the eye of administration economists.

Whether or not these fiscal policies have helped build Europe's visible prosperity can be debated. But the Kennedy administration, now searching for ways to turn a merely satisfactory recovery into full employment prosperity, intends to find out if it can.

Of special interest are Europe's tax structures, for Kennedy has announced he will send Congress this summer the blueprint for a massive 1963 tax overhaul. There is speculation that it will contain a net tax cut of up to $5 billion. At what points should this tax relief be concentrated to produce maximum growth?

Republicans who blame Kennedy economic policies for the stock market's wild gyrations, already have assailed the European study as "a real Alice-in-wonderland" adventure.

There are ample signs that the study and its director, Chairman Walter W. Heller of the Economic Council, will be the target of GOP campaign speeches throughout the fall congressional election campaign.

The Heller study is expected to propose some changes in the budget itself—the "administrative budget" historically used for federal bookkeeping. Economists have long argued that it is a poor yardstick for measuring the actual impact of federal spending and tax-collecting on the economy.

Heller has indicated he favors a budget which would show the economic effects of the huge government held trust funds, including Social Security.

But Kennedy and Heller are focusing on matters of greater moment than tinkering with the fiscal yardsticks. They want to know for instance, whether a tax cut in 1965 might have the same beneficial effect that the last one had, in 1954. And whether it might be preferable as a stimulant—as Britain seems to believe—to a rapid increase in federal spending.

Historically, Americans have expected their government—no matter which party is in power—to budget for a surplus. All too often the surpluses have turned into deficits, but the goal of balancing the budget has been accepted as synonymous with fiscal responsibility.

One aim of the Heller study, some officials here suggest privately, is a public relations purpose—to pave the way for public acceptance of some possible departures from time-honored American fiscal tradition.

That squares with the current hints that Kennedy will ask Congress, to start considering a sizable tax cut in 1963 as part of a basic revision of the patchwork U. S. tax system. A tax cut almost certainly would mean a calculated budget deficit—to be erased later, hopefully, by the shot in the arm it would give the economy.

Friday: The Kennedy grand strategy.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Dunham and three sons, Warren, were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garber. Other recent callers at the Garber home have been Mr. and Mrs. John Wright and two sons and Fay Smith Westfield, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Ryckman have been recent callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William day evening were Mrs. Lewis Wat-Elis. Visitors in their home Monson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell of Seneca.

Mrs. Charlotte Holcomb, Mrs. Elma Suggitt and Mrs. Gretchen Marker, Warren, were callers in Dunkirk, N. Y., last week. Sunday visitors of the Holcombs were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Black of Corry.

Debra Coe, Titusville, spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Paden of Fairmont, Calif., were called home by the death of her mother, Mrs. "Bud" Weldon. They arrived by plane Friday with their two children and plan to stay for a couple of weeks. The Weldons are former residents of Grand Valley, leaving here when they built a new home in Pleasantville.

Among recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Pierce were Mrs. Lois Moravsek and son, Jack, of Corry; Janet Burleigh, East Branch; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis and two children of Spartansburg. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Danielson and four children for a picnic supper on the lawn.

Susan Devore, Pittsfield, spent Monday night with Barbara Danielson.

Mrs. Donald Calhoun and son, Kevin, came from Sharon Hill to be the weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Eberhart. Other visitors in the Eberhart home have been Mr. and Mrs. Harry Freeman, New Bethlehem; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cressman of Souderton.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall were Mr. and Mrs. George Kirkwood of Tylersburg. The Marshalls attended the Epworth Methodist Church service in Warren and called on Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pierce in Oil City.

Negotiations Resuming Today At Koppers Co.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Negotiations were scheduled to resume today in an effort to end the five-week strike at Koppers Co., Inc.'s Kobuta plant.

A spokesman for Local 874 of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union, AFL-CIO, said bargaining teams would meet at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport after a two-week recess.

The strike followed the expiration of a labor contract on April 30.

Meanwhile, some of the 650 Kobuta production workers have been picketing the plant and Koppers' docking facilities on the Ohio River at Monaca. Picketing of the dock area started Monday and is being accomplished through the use of boats.

The dock picketing will continue around the clock, a union spokesman said.

Carrot and Stick

President Kennedy has attempted to operate on the American economy with the traditional carrot and stick—that is to beat and then to tempt it along the route he wants to follow.

It appeared that the economy had taken its beating when he undercut the steel industry. However, the wild slide of the Stock Market last week indicates that the first method did not work. The economy balked and the stick turned around and beat the President.

Now we are trying the carrot method. We are holding out the hope—and at this stage it is nothing more—of a tax cut next year—maybe... perhaps. This is better than giving us the tax cut now, because, the government obviously hopes, the people will spend themselves even deeper into debt, in anticipation of the tax relief—which, we repeat, is still just a vague promise.

This way the economy would get a free ride through the end of 1962 and probably would not slow up until early in 1963.

What happens in 1963 if the tax cut does not materialize? Well, we'll have to get either a new stick or a fresh carrot, since the administration seems dedicated to this principle.

However the real cure for the problem is not these finaglings with the popular purse. The answer is a big cut—and we mean a big one—in the socialistic spending of the national government. A real reduction in the size of that government is another means of reducing the burden.

It is not a question here of guns or butter. It is a question of guns and butter or guns and filet mignon and sparkling burgundy.

Very frankly nothing would please us more than to see Washington, which teems with federal employees—many of them useless time-servers—reduced to the status of a village. That huge complex of bureaus and sub-bureaus and all the rest is a luxury which we can no longer afford. It is like a man on the unemployment rolls owning a yacht. It is the Rolls Royce in the pauper's garage.

We don't have to worry about the Russians half as much as we do about the big spenders in Washington, who can do the same job painlessly—more or less.

Is there no hope for a rational national government?

The Smarter Sex?

The Warren Area High School class has three (count 'em! Three) valedictorians this year.

All three of them are girls.

All three of them had straight A (or "5," if you prefer that terminology) averages throughout the three school years.

This is impressive, for a number of reasons. It is not easy to maintain a straight A average in any high school. Warren has a reputation of being tough, academically speaking. Five's are not handed out on a platter and the students have found they have to work for them.

The three young ladies, as published in The Times-Mirror on Tuesday are Carole Cleveland, Helene McClure and Sherry Seiber. We know their parents are proud of them and we know the community is, too.

As for those who would draw inferences from that fact that all three are girls, we'll let that alone. Most men of mature years are willing to admit that their wives are smarter than they are, anyhow. It's sort of a tradition in the human race. Now here are three young ladies to prove it.

Our sincere congratulations to these young ladies, and to their parents who deserve more than a little of the credit.

A Tokyo grade school teacher gave his class the homework assignment of counting from one to 100 million. Let's hope the kids finish by the time they graduate from college!

New York's Coney Island has a new amusement park called Astroland. Said to be out of this world.

It took a woman christening an Australian ship, nine smashes against the vessel's bow before the bottle of champagne broke. No soft drink, that!

The dandelion originally came to this country in the holds of cargo ships from Europe, we read. There's one foreigner that everybody—and we do mean everybody!—would certainly like to see deported!

Another War Criminal

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Now that Adolf Eichmann has paid the penalty for his mass murders, the Kennedy Administration should scrutinize the status of certain Europeans who have surreptitiously come to the United States despite the fact that they are charged with war crimes against religious minorities.

The American people recently set a new milestone in wiping out religious prejudice by electing the first Catholic in American history as President of the United States. The President's brother, Robert F. Kennedy, is now in a position as Attorney General where he can punish or at least deport those charged with religious intolerance.

There are at least three such exiles in the United States and this column will undertake to name them.

Foremost on the list is Andrija Artukovic, now living near Long Beach, Calif., who, as minister of the interior for the Nazi state of Croatia during the war, has been charged as a war criminal by the Yugoslav government.

After Hitler invaded Yugoslavia he set up the "Independent State of Croatia" for the purpose of splitting the old kingdom of the Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes and stirring up as much antagonism as possible between them. In charge of police matters and the religious and racial "purgings" of Croatia was Dr. Artukovic, minister of the interior.

And in 1941, Adolf Eichmann sent Capt. Franz Abromeit, a so-called "specialist in Jewish affairs," to Zagreb, Croatia, to speed up the liquidation not only of Jews but the Serbs, who are orthodox.

The Yugoslav government has now charged that Artukovic was responsible for the number of approximately 600,000 Serbs, Jews, and Gypsies who were liquidated before the allied armies pushed into the Balkans at the end of the war.

According to the records of the Yugoslav government, Artukovic set up a "Central Office for Jewish Affairs," headed by Dr. Vilko Kinel, which in turn opened concentration camps in Laborgrad, Djakovo, Tenje, Jasenovac, Pag, Staro, Gratska, Danica, Jadovono, Krusica.

The regulations issued by Artukovic parallel almost word for word the decrees issued by Himmler under Adolf Hitler and carried out by Eichmann.

On April 30, 1941, only 20 days after the Independent State of Croatia was formed, Artukovic proclaimed "the decree on racial affiliation," which stated what persons were considered Jews.

On the same day, April 30, another decree as issued "at the proposal of the Minister of Interior Artukovic on the protection of Aryan blood and the honor of the Croatian people."

Again, on May 6, 1941, Artukovic signed a "regulation forbidding the employment of women in non-Aryan homes."

On June 4, 1941, Artukovic signed "the regulation of the organization and competence of the racial-political commission."

The tasks of this commission paralleled the decree set up in Nazi Germany and were as follows:

"To elaborate proposals and drafts relating to racial biology, racial policy, racial hygiene and eugenics."

The purge of the Jewish people was moving in high gear both in Germany, Rumania and Yugoslavia at this time, and on the same day, June 4, Artukovic signed "the regulation on changing Jewish last names and identification signs for Jews." This specified that "persons of the Jewish race are not permitted to wear the Croatian national colors and Aryan emblems. . . persons of the Jewish race over the age of 14 must wear signs identifying them as Jews, in the form of round tin plates, when outside their homes . . . this sign must be worn so that it can be seen on the left side of the breast."

Artukovic also issued various ordinances which permitted the seizure and theft of Jewish property without prosecution.

These decrees, all on record in the war crimes files, bear the official signature of Artukovic.

Nevertheless Artukovic is now living quietly in sunny California. The story of how he got here and why he is permitted to remain here will be told in an early column.

How To Keep Well

By DR. THEODORE Van DELLEN

Now is the time to prepare for heat waves. Get an air conditioner or a good fan for the home, provided the purse can take it. The cost may be included in the medical expenses and deducted for tax purposes under certain medical conditions.

These devices improve sleeping, which means a better disposition and outlook for the next day. Air conditioning also is a boon to ill persons, especially victims of heart disease, asthma, and hay fever.

The body is capable of adjusting to ordinary changes in weather. When the mercury shoots up above 90 degrees, the heart works a little harder, to bring as much blood as possible to the skin for cooling purposes. This is not difficult for the normal organ but may present a problem when it is handicapped by a leaky valve, enlargement, or inadequate coronary circulation.

Studies in New Orleans demonstrated that cardiac patients improve faster in an air conditioned environment. More and more hospitals are installing this system. The asthmatic breathes easier in dry air, more so when the unit contains an adequate filter to screen out dust and other offending agents.

There are filters and filters. Some do a better job than others with dust and pollen. The individual with asthma or hay fever should investigate the ability of the filter to screen out the agents to which he is sensitive.

The majority of window air conditioners and filters remove dust and other noxious particles from the air. Room filters will not do the job so long as a window is open. But no filter is of much value in reducing asthmatic symptoms if the person goes in and out of the air filtered room.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

F. W. writes: I had an attack of pyomyositis in November and stayed home a week. After three days on the job I developed chills and fever and coughing and the doctor said I had pneumonitis. I have been dragging around for months but am beginning to pick up. Is this the way pneumonitis acts?

REPLY—No, but some persons recover more slowly than others. There are many causes of fatigue which may or may not be related to your previous ailment. As a result, you should undergo another checkup.

R. C. writes: What causes shin splints? How long do they usually last? How should they be treated? I understand baseball players suffer from them occasionally.

REPLY—This type of leg disorder is caused by strain or injury to ligaments and fibrous tissues of the legs. The constant jarring produced by running on a hard surface or in cheerleading is responsible. Heat, massage, strapping, and rest will help but recovery is sometimes slow.

C. E. S. writes: My 69 year old mother has osteoarthritis of the spine at the neck. This has caused gradual weakening of her arms and hands. She can't raise her arms above the head and she drops things. Can anything be done for this condition?

REPLY—Heat, massage, and neck exercises may help to alleviate pressure on the nerves in this area. I assume your mother is under medical care at present.

M. S. writes: Could high blood pressure cause the hands to tingle?

REPLY—Yes, especially when the blood pressure is being taken. Tingling at other times could stem from spasm of the blood vessels.

The Brighter Side

D-Day, 18 Years Later

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — In our crowded now there is little time for remembrance.

So it was this week the 18th anniversary of the Allied D-Day landings in Normandy caught me by surprise.

Then the feeling of surprise gave way to a feeling of guilt. I gave way to a feeling of guilt for a moment forgot the incidents of that mighty hour?

I went into the kitchen and from a cabinet pulled out an old and time-lovely silver dish, made by a fine craftsman centuries ago.

Things tie us to our past, and this small silver dish is my souvenir of D-Day.

On that fateful morning that now seems so long ago I was in an encampment outside Winchester in southern England. Our group of correspondents was scheduled to go ashore the following day with Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley, the American field commander.

Waiting was hard. A number of us went into town.

We entered famous old Winchester Cathedral, one of the world's most beautiful beings. Some of us who weren't used to saying prayers said prayers then.

Leaving, we passed a small antique shop. I saw this lovely silver dish in the window, and went in and bought it for my wife. But it has become a bridge across time for me.

Later we went to the nearest Please See Pg. 11

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

A Statement to the People of Youngsville:

There has been reports that the Youngsville Vol. Fire Dept. is not in favor of a Community Center, but this is not true. We of the dept. feel that this project would be a big asset to the community of Youngsville and we wish them all the success possible.

As an organization we cannot help this project in any way, but as individuals I'm sure that it will be supported. Our department depends on donations and tax money to operate, so by this means we cannot turn around and donate money that has been donated to us. We not only turned down this project for our support, but we have to turn down everyone who wants our help.

As for labor on building this Community Center Building, we will not help as a fire department, but I'm sure you can depend on some labor from us as individuals and also money-wise. The fire department of Youngsville has never been against anything that would be for the betterment of our community and we never will.

Good Luck On Your Community Center Project.

The Youngsville Vol. Fire Dept.

Is This Justice?

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Mrs. Mary Ellen Benson was fined $10.40 in a Milwaukee Court because she went to church on a Sunday morning. According to Judge Robert Miech she should have gone to a union meeting.

It is difficult for one not living in Milwaukee and not knowing the parties concerned to understand what business it was of the judge's anyhow. Are our courts of law designed to enforce union regulations? The particular union to which Mrs. Benson belongs chooses to meet on Sunday mornings; it also chooses to fine members who do not attend three out of five meetings.

This is strictly a private matter between Mrs. Benson and the union. If she is deprived of her job because she prefers to go to church rather than to the union meeting, she ought to be able to sue the union for blacklisting her because of her religious scruples and a sensible judge and jury would support her in her preference of God over the union.

Mrs. Benson said: "The union meetings come on Sunday mornings exactly at my church time. I've told them (the union) over and over again that I will never go to their meetings as long as they are on Sunday - and I still won't."

Bravo! That is the old, fighting spirit. If more of that were left in this country, there would be less bureaucracy in government, in business, in labor. The other day, I tried to put through a long distance telephone call and it took me four calls because either the operators were fresh or did not understand simple English, clearly enunciated. When I asked for a supervisor, I was told she was busy. The telephone company is a business enterprise which charges for its services. It used to be an efficient organization with delightful and helpful operators. It advertised, "The Girl with the Smile."

There is no longer a smile. Those girls won a strike and they are as proud as all get out. If one avoids the person-to-person call and uses the various code numbers, he can miss the yakety-yak of the fresh operator, but the person-to-person call is a proper service.

It is the same with the telegraph companies. A person can fly from Rome to New York faster than a telegram. I was notified by my nephew from France that my son was leaving Rome on a Friday. Friday morning, a non-English, accented person telephoned the message which turned out to be incorrect. It was corrected by telephone late in the afternoon. My son arrived Friday night at 7 p. m. The telegram and its correction arrived at my house, in the heart of New York City, Saturday morning at about 9 a. m.

When boys were permitted to work after school, telegrams were rapidly delivered. The boy got a good tip. Instead today, such a boy has to hang around, after he has begun to grow a beard, waiting to be old enough to be permitted to work. His life pattern is organized on the theory that prolonged loafing is individually and socially beneficial.

There is a shortage of all kinds of help, but youngsters may not work for pay, except to cut the grass but in the big cities there is no grass. Mrs. Benson's experience forces me to think that the arrogance of some unions today is as great as the arrogance of the self-made businessman was before the 1929 crash when he learned that his business judgement was not so good.

The union officials know that American generally like to go to church on Sunday mornings. It is an old custom. It is part of the national mores. The union could well hold its meetings at some other time and should not have used the secular arm of a court to impose its peculiarities upon anyone.

There is a lot of noise about the separation of church and state, but when a union and a judge decide that an American may be fined for attending a church, something very evil has entered into our way of life and that evil must be stamped out by all decent people. It is the evil of materialism, which weakens the sinews of the family and therefore weakens the nation.

One bad judgement of an individual need not force us to a generalized conclusion but it does require vigilance.

Believe It or Not!

Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

(Dorothy Kilgallen is on vacation. Her guest columnist today is Richard D. Zanuck, producer of "The Chapman Report.")

RICHARD D. ZANUCK writes: Anyone connected with the making of motion pictures gets accustomed, more or less, to answering idiotic questions—from "Is it true that So-and-So wears a toupee?" to "Why doesn't Hollywood make normal pictures any more?" Then, of course, there's the question I've been asked a dozen times in the last year or so: "Why are you making 'The Chapman Report'?"

The answers to the first two are easy. "I've never thought about So-and-So wearing a toupee any more than I've thought about his wearing garters to hold up his socks," and "I don't know what a normal picture is any more than you do, but if it's what I suspect, it's easy to go broke these days in making them."

"The Chapman Report" question is a little harder to answer, but it has no more validity than the others. Why did Irving Wallace write the book? Why did over 3,000,000 people buy it? Why did the Warner Brothers agree to my making the picture?

TO begin with, "The Chapman Report" is not lewd, lascivious or licentious and if these qualities are seen in the picture they are in the eye of the beholder. The picture may be concerned with sex, but doesn't mean it's just a sexy picture. It is primarily a good story, with fine elements of drama highlighted by many delicious moments of comedy. The fact is that a sex survey team and its researchers into the private lives of a group of women in a fictitious Los Angeles suburb has little bearing on the outcome of the film itself.

"The Chapman Report" is the story of four women and their innermost personal lives. That is the focal point of the story. The location could have been anywhere else and the story would be just as valid. The fact that it takes a scientific survey by a team of psychologists probing their sexual experiences to bring their lives into focus does not make it a racy picture. My concern, and that of director George Cukor, was to show the very human drama which underlies their seemingly orderly lives.

Of our four leading women—Shelly Winters, Jane Fonda, Claire Bloom and Glynis Johns—one is driven to an adulterous affair because of extreme boredom, another is convinced she is frigid because of an unhappy marriage, a third is the sad victim of an obsession with sex and the fourth nearly slips from virtue because she convinces herself she's been missing something only to discover she really hasn't.

Yet all lead lives which, with the exception of the sex-obsessed girl, are seemingly happy and correct. It is only when we probe beneath the surface of their day-to-day existences that we see, and sometimes are shocked by their secrets.

PROBABLY each one of these women has millions of counterparts throughout the world. But their lives are to each one of them as personal, and some of them as painful, as a toothache. Those who expect vulgarity from "The Chapman Report" will be disappointed. Vulgarity is distasteful to me and to George Cukor, who has directed some of the greatest pictures ever made. But the film is full of excitement, which is more difficult to achieve and a lot more fun to watch.

There is no doubt, however, that "The Chapman Report" is controversial, just as the book was. But those who attack motion pictures for the filming of controversial themes should get their heads out of the sand and look around at the world they live in.

When you live in a house with a time bomb in the cellar you cannot expect the occupants to go on as if everything were normal. The United States, Russia and even France are shooting off nuclear firecrackers and it's probably just a matter of time until smaller nations start building them in their backyards. Whole continents are in turmoil, the world's moral climate is changing before our eyes and there is a tremendous drive wherever men live for freedom of expression. What do they expect from Hollywood—"Mother Goose?"

THOSE who attack Hollywood for filming adult themes fail to realize a very important point. It is that today's moral climate is affecting picture-making, and not vice-versa. Those who clamor for strict censorship of motion pictures should try to clean up the world, not Hollywood, if they feel anything needs cleaning up.

"The Chapman Report" is in good taste. It may be concerned with a subject which until recently has been hidden under the bed as if it didn't exist, it may concern itself with a few people whose morals are far from exemplary, but impropriety is not one of its faults. It is also forthright and honest, as the subject matter deserves. It has been given the seal of approval of the Motion Picture Producers Association under a code set up for the industry. This is not an "outlaw" picture.

All this is a long answer for a single question, but it is an answer I have been wanting to make publicly for some time. I am grateful to Dorothy Kilgallen for the opportunity to make it.

Ladies' Day

It was out-of-class day on Wednesday for the women golfers at Conewango Valley Country Club.

Winners, by divisions, for the nine-hole tournament were Mrs. Homer Culbertson, Mrs. Francis Erickson, Mrs. Donald Morgan and Mrs. Gilbert Buerkle.

Next week's play, a kicker's handicap match, will mark the start of 18-hole tournaments.

Nazarene Missionary Society Names Delegates to Convention

At the annual meeting of Nazarene Foreign Missionary Society in the church last evening, delegates were elected to attend the District missionary convention July 17-18 in Butler.

Those elected were Preston Taylor, Mrs. John Andree, Mrs. Raymond Phelps, Mrs. Paul Klencik, Mrs. Lyle, with alternates, Mrs. J. Trauffer, Miss Barbara Baker, Harry Cowles, Mrs. Wallin and Mrs. Ohl.

DEVOTIONS and the business meeting were conducted by the Rev. John Z. Andree. Songs were sung by Susan King, Lynn Graves and Anita Gray, with Sharon Rieder as organist.

Annual reports were given by officers and secretaries. It was reported $5,000 was raised and given for all purposes. Thirteen new members were reported, with 16 new members for Prayer and Fasting League. It was stated 109 people have read at least three missionary books.

IT was announced there were 200 subscriptions to Other Sheep magazine and birthday cards were sent to 320 missionaries. It was reported, also, boxes sent to missionaries and needy persons included 250 rolls of bandages, 36 hospital gowns to Africa, two quilts, three blankets and new garments, and three boxes of used clothing to Cuban refugees.

The Study Book, Life in Latin America, was reviewed.

OFFICERS elected for the 1962-63 term are Mrs. Preston Taylor, president; Mrs. John Andree, vice president; Miss Gladys Judd, secretary; Mrs. Raymond Phelps, treasurer.

Others are Mrs. Dewitt Dixon, superintendent of study; Mrs. Russell Shute, prayer and fasting;

Vacation Church School Plans Announced by First Lutheran

The annual Vacation Church School sessions for First Lutheran parish will begin next Monday and continue through June 22, with classes from 9 until 11 a. m. daily through Friday.

All staff members and pupils have been asked to assemble in Fellowship Hall at 9 a. m. on the first day for devotions and distribution into classes.

THE general theme this year will be "Knowing Jesus," with Japan as the mission topic. Children are asked to bring Japanese articles for display, each carefully marked in order that it may be returned to its owner. It has been announced, also, the youngsters should bring an offering each Friday for a 9 a. m. general meeting in Fellowship Hall. This offering is to be sent to the Board of Foreign Missions of the

—McIntosh Studio
NANCY GUSTAFSON

United Lutheran Church, marked "Special Gifts—Japan."

A program for parents will be presented at 7:30 p. m. June 21, a change from the custom of former years, when the closing event was on Friday.

The final session for study and distribution of certificates to the children has been set for the regular period on June 22.

Mothers of children in the primary department have been requested to make cookies for a snack on June 15; those in kindergarten and junior departments to make cupcakes for the closing Friday.

MRS. Herbert Bartz, Mrs. Martha Schueltz and Miss Harriet E. Bartow, serving as the planning committee, said children of four and five through junior age of 11-12 are being enrolled.

Mothers of the children have been asked to clip this announcement for future reference.

Calvary Baptist Church Opening Vacation School

This year's theme for Daily Vacation Bible School at Calvary Baptist Church, 445 Conewango Ave., is "Patriots for Christ." The theme stresses loyalty to God and country.

The two-week session for nursery children, three and four years old, through teens, will begin at 9 a. m. Monday and continue at 9 to 11 a. m. Monday through Friday until June 22.

THEME of the nursery department is God's Big World; beginners, We Learn About Jesus; primary, The Lord Is My Shepherd; junior, The Christian's Birth and Growth; teens, Answering God's Call.

The school will feature a daily assembly, with a missionary story by Miss Barbara Swanson, and song time with Murray Foreman at the piano. It is announced there

District Deputy Installs Court Slate

Officers elected to serve in 1962-63 were installed and tentative plans made for early summer activities in last night's meeting of Court Warren 834, Catholic Daughters of America.

MEMBERS attending the monthly session in St. Joseph's School Hall approved participation in the annual Sidewalk Festival sponsored by the Retailers' Committee of Warren Area Chamber of Commerce.

Arrangements were discussed, also, for the annual membership picnic and the date set for June 28. Supper will be at 6 p. m. at the Marconi Outing Club, with meat and coffee provided by the committee.

The help of volunteers was asked in setting up an entertainment projects committee in the fall.

MISS Anna Fleming, district deputy from Kane, conducted the evening's installation ceremony. Those inducted were:

Grand regent—Mrs. Dennis DiPietro (re-elected); vice regent—Mrs. Dan Doherty; historian—Miss Florence Sealise; financial secretary—Mrs. Fred Hennessey; treasurer—Mrs. Carl Papalia; lecturer—Miss Marie Gaghan; prophetess—Mrs. Marcel Prigent (re-elected); monitor—Miss Elizabeth Janes; sentinel—Mrs. Paul Stein-kamp; organist—Mrs. Donald Edinger; trustees—Mrs. Anthony Font and Mrs. Iona Morrison. Miss Fleming was assisted by Mrs. Ben Malec as assistant monitor.

DURING the social hour, Mrs. DiPietro related some of the highlights of the 25th biennial convention of Pennsylvania Catholic Daughters of America, conducted in Philadelphia May 19-23.

She said one unusual experience was a mass at St. John's Church for the deaf mutes who also have a school nearby; Miss Genevieve Blatt's address, "Know Thyself."

at the luncheon Sunday was very inspiring; the Pontifical mass on Monday with officers all in robes was a beautiful sight to remember and Archbishop John Mark Gannon, state chaplain from Erie, delivered the sermon.

AT Tuesday's business meeting the state chairman of the Share the Faith programs and the World Peace chairman both commended Court Warren for its Pilgrimage last fall to four different churches in Warren County and inviting women to attend who were not members.

Tuesday afternoon a talk by Father Andrew, who is the first priest to be helped financially by the C. D. of A. program, explained the work of Father Gilbert's mission and gave facts concerning the help from 90 courts, with the result that 87 priests have been ordained so far.

Mrs. Robert Nelson, grand regent of Court Callistus, Kane, was named as alternate to the national convention in Denver, Colo., in July.

Mrs. DiPietro expressed her appreciation to the Court for the privilege of attending.

LUNCH following the meeting was served by Mrs. George Mostert, Mrs. Ray Slater, Mrs. Joseph Lucia, Mrs. Peter Scalise, Mrs. Donald Edinger, Mrs. LaMonte

Mothers' Club Has Plans for Picnic

Announcement has been made of the Pre-School Mothers' Club family picnic at 3 p. m. Sunday in the pavilion at Wildcat Park, with dinner at 5.

Committee members are Mrs. Connie Townley, Mrs. Carole Wolfe, Mrs. Beverly Smith and Mrs. Marianne Mayben.

Those attending are asked to bring table service, rolls, butter and a tureen. Meat and beverages will be furnished by the committee.

SCOUT SCHEDULE

With the start of the camping program next Monday, Warren-Forest Council of Girl Scouts has announced the beginning of its summer office schedule. The hours will be from 9 a. m. until noon and from 1 until 4 p. m.; other times by appointment only.

Culbertson and Miss Mary Blocher. Court colors were used in fashioning a table arrangement of purple iris and lemon lilies encircling a madonna.

In addition to Miss Fleming, out of town guests were Mrs. Nelson, grand regent for St. Callistus Court of Kane, and a group from Corry; Mrs. Robert Sanders, grand regent, Mrs. Tony Stec, Mrs. Joseph Prugar, Mrs. Norbert Backofner, Miss Marion Sullivan and Miss Helen Morrell.

Why Girl Scouts Go to Camp

Conducting a survey among its young members, Warren-Forest Council of Girl Scouts has determined a few of the reasons Girl Scouts are always anxious to go to Camp Birdsall Edey at Grunderville for the various summer camping periods.

AMONG these special interests have been listed swimming, archery, crafts, sports and games, hikes, sleeping in tents, cookouts, and the chance to get together with other girls in their own age groups.

Mrs. Gordon Kay, camping chairman for the Warren-Forest Council, announces the established Camp session at Birdsall Edey is two-thirds full and girls wishing to attend are advised to register soon.

This camp, running from July 8 to 19, is open to all Girl Scouts from those entering fifth grade through seniors.

MISS Jane Stewart, camp director, announces that most of the staff has been selected and will be announced shortly.

Brownies of the Warren-Forest Council will be attending Day Camp at Camp Birdsall Edey beginning Monday, June 11, through June 29 under the direction of Mrs. Donald Dalrymple. Over 400 Brownies, the largest group ever to attend, have signed up for this Day Camp program.

Lutheran Delegates Will Attend Synod's Sessions

The Rev. Frederick B. Haer, pastor of First Lutheran Church, and Jack McCool, lay delegate for his parish, will be leaving Monday afternoon to attend the annual sessions of the Pittsburgh Synod, United Lutheran Church in America.

THIS 120th and final convention of Synod prior to the Lutheran merger this summer is scheduled at Thiel College in Greenville. A service of Holy Communion on Monday evening will be the opening event on the three-day schedule.

Highlight of the convention will be the signing of the formal agreement which will incorporate the present Pittsburgh Synod with the West Virginia Synod and area congregations of the Augustana and Suomi (Finnish) Lutheran churches into the new Western Pennsylvania Synod.

The action is part of the merger of four continent-wide Lutheran bodies into the new Lutheran Church in America, which will take effect Jan. 1, 1963.

AMONG 12 seminary graduates to be examined for ordination will be John P. Harman, who has accepted a call to become the pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church in Pleasant Township.

Others are Charles R. Chapie, New Brighton; Allen G. Dietz, Harold S. Gardner, and Ralph F. Schibler, Glenshaw; Gordon P. Glink, Natrona Heights; Philip S. Harcourt and Gerald N. Kissell, Erie; Richard H. Stough, Greensburg; Glenn E. Heasley Jr., Jeannette; Edward Mertz, Pittsburgh; and William C. Sowers, Latrobe.

THE ordination service will be conducted Wednesday evening at Holy Trinity Church in Greenville. The preacher will be the Rev. Charles A. Hackenberg, pastor of Mt. Lebanon United Lutheran Church of Pittsburgh.

Representing the parent body of the Synod, the United Lutheran Church, will be the Rev. G. Elson Ruff, editor of "The Lutheran", the denomination's weekly magazine. He will speak twice during the convention.

MATINS preacher will be the Rev. Dr. Henry H. Bagger, former Synod president and current president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. Convention chaplain is the Rev. John E. Berman, pastor of Mt. Calvary Church in Erie.

A fraternal address will be given Tuesday evening by the Rev. Dr. Thorsten A. Gustafson, president of the New York Conference of Augustana Lutheran Church. At the same session, greetings will be brought by representatives of the West Virginia and Suomi synods.

THERE will be no election of officers or adoption of a budget for 1963, since the new Western Pennsylvania Synod will be organized Sept. 17-18. Current president of the Pittsburgh Synod is the Rev. Dr. William C. Hankey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Owen, Park Ave., and Joseph Casey Sr. of Russell have arrived home after a winter vacation in Boca Raton, Fla.

Sandy Adolphson, member of this year's Warren Area High School graduating class, will be attending Jamestown Business College, starting in September. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Adolphson of 1405 Pennsylvania Ave. west, she has been enrolled for study in the medical secretarial course.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Y. Kopf, of The Locusts on Warren-Jamestown Road, are leaving today for Windsor, Conn., where they will attend the graduation of their son, Robert, from The Loomis School. He has been accepted by Princeton University in the Class of 1966.

Warren friends have received announcement of the marriage on May 24 of two former local residents, Mrs. Elizabeth Biber White of San Antonio, Texas, and Leo James Driscoll of Erie. The ceremony was performed in Saint Margaret Mary's Catholic Church in San Antonio, where the couple will reside at 910 Chicago Blvd.

We are told that Lee Wood, former Cory resident and for years editor of the New York Herald-

Tribune, is listed among notables returning for the 88th annual Cory High School Alumni Association reunion. Competition is said to be keen among classes for an attendance record, 1937 currently leading with more than 100.

Kerry Gern, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gern of 745 Pleasant Drive, has been brought home from Hamot Hospital in Erie, where he was a surgical patient.

We have announcement from Oil City that Trinity Methodist Church will honor Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Wayne Furman at a 5 p. m. Vesper Service on June 17. A minister of First Methodist Church in Warren from 1943 to 1950, Dr. Furman is retiring from the active ministry.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Moll of East Riverdale, Md., are here to spend the week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Moll of Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clapp in Tiona.

We have it on the best of authority that Dennis Weaver has postponed his plans to quit "Gunsmoke" and will continue next season as Mr. Dillon's "Chester."

Mandel Johnson of Corpus Christi, Texas, arrived in Warren Wednesday and will spend the summer months at the family home in Scandia. He was accompanied north by his brother, Albert, who was with him in Texas for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Fisher of Denver, Colo., are in town for a two-week vacation with his mother, Mrs. Grace Fisher, of the Warren Apartments.

From Franklin comes announcement the Ministerial Council of The Church of God has purchased 198 acres among Georgetown Road for use as a camp meeting grounds. Churches in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, and Virginia are included in the Council.

Majors in Religion

STEPHEN J. RIEDER

A major in religion earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Eastern Nazarene College on June 4 for Stephen J. Rieder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rieder of 210 River Road.

A graduate of Warren Area High School in 1957, he was granted the Pittsburgh District and Fitkin Memorial Scholarships at Eastern Nazarene.

He served as president of the Student Foreign Missions Fellowship in his junior year and as president of the Evangelistic Association in his senior year.

The Warren man was selected, also, to represent his class in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Barnes Students Attend Sheffield Bible Schools

BARNES—Attending Daily Vacation Bible School at Bethany Church in Sheffield are Linda and Nancy Curtin, Cindy Fitch, Mayvis and Brenda Ralston, David and Valerie Rounds.

Those children attending the summer Bible school at the Methodist Church in Sheffield are Cindy Lewis, Nels, Eric and Kirsten Swanson. Mrs. Frank Lloyd and Mrs. Kenneth Pierce are assisting Mrs. Jack Parsons with the junior age group.

FIFTY guests were entertained by the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blair in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Congratulations were extended to the Blair's son, Steve, and daughter, Judie, on their graduation from Sheffield High School on May 31. Also graduated was Cliff Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Snyder.

Relatives have received word of the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hassinger of Bristol, Va. They are former residents of Barnes and she is the former Letitia Houghton.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Conquer were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Swart of Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. Merle Lore and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson of Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Scott of Jamestown were callers at the home of Helen Roberts, and weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brown of Sheffield.

Foreign Exchange Student Will Come from Holland

YOUNGSVILLE — The local chapter of American Field Service has received word from the New York office that Anna Maria de Jongh from Gravenhage, Holland, will be the 1962-63 foreign exchange student coming here.

"Ankie," as she said she likes to be called, will live with the Robert Jewell family at 518 College St. She is 16 and has two brothers and two sisters. Her father is inspector of a general accounting office.

THE foreign visitor is particularly interested in the history of art, psychology, pedagogy, literature, dramatics and music. She enjoys participating in hockey, horse back riding and swimming.

In her school, she has been editor of its newspaper and active in the Youth Club, an organization devoted to the welfare of underprivileged children. She said she is keenly interested in this type of work and plans to be a social worker upon completion of her education in this field. The local community is looking forward to her arrival sometime in August.

JOHN H. Kirk, finance chairman of the local American Field Service Chapter, states the organization is short $50 of the $650 necessary for travel, miscellaneous expenses and insurance to bring her here.

He said possibly there are some who intend to assist, but have forgotten. Anyone interested is asked to send contributions to Mr. Kirk, 135 Marsh Ave., Youngsville.

The local chapter has stated: "We will go through with the program, even though we may have to borrow to cover this year."

Sugar Grove Mission Church Schedules Children's Service

SUGAR GROVE — The Rev. David Vennberg, pastor of the Mission Covenant Church, announces the Children's Day observance by the Sunday School.

IN a combined worship service, which will begin at 10:30 a. m. Sunday, the children will present readings and tableaux, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Olson and Miss Lillian Landin.

The Junior Choir will sing selections, following the children's presentation, and Mr. Vennberg will give a devotional message for youth and adults. The public is invited to the service.

TEN members attended the meeting of Try Company of First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Conrad Youngberg presided at the business meeting and secretary and treasurer reports were given by Mrs. Arthur Cody, with Mrs. Kenneth Frank reporting for the sunshine department.

Mrs. Norman Abbott and Mrs. John Stuart are the committee appointed for purchasing dishes and equipment for the kitchen. Many thank-you notes were read.

IT was reported members of the church will meet soon for house cleaning and Try Company voted to assist.

Mrs. Herman Youngberg and Mrs. Conrad Youngberg served refreshments. Hostess for the July meeting will be Mrs. Fulton McKay.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Storms, Union City, have announced the engagement of their only daughter, Sylvia Gay, to Donald Ekeleberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ekeleberger of Windsor, N.Y.

Miss Storms is a graduate of Jamestown, N. Y., Community College, and will be graduated next week from Harpur College in Binghamton. She is a granddaughter of Walter Storms of Sugar Grove.

MRS. Harold Carlson entertained recently at a shower for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sheldon Carlson, with 15 guests attending. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Melburn Landin, Mrs. Doyle Carlson, Mrs. Burt Schoonover, the guest of honor, Mrs. Eugene Cadman of Williamsport, and Mrs.

Walter Storms of Union City.

MRS. Burt Schoonover was honored by the Gay Nine Birthday Club at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harold Barnes. An epergne with pink weigelia and roses centered the table. She was presented a gift from club members.

Called here over the weekend by the illness of their father, Carl F. Norbeck, in WCA Hospital in Jamestown, were Mrs. Sherman McClure of Middletown, N. J., and Curtis Norbeck of Newburg, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Scott entertained at a Friday evening birthday dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gustaf Flick, Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warner, Big Tree-Sugar Grove Road; Mrs. Walter Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Warner and three daughters.

Recent hostess to the Embroidery Club was Mrs. Gregg Abbott, assisted by her granddaughter, Mrs. Stanley Leen.

It has been reported Mrs. Carl McIntyre suffered a heart attack at her home and was removed to WCA Hospital in Jamestown by ambulance.

Mrs. Ralph Abbott entertained Bridge Club this week. Guests were Mrs. Berger Edlund of Elmhurst and Mrs. Burt Schoonover.

Mrs. J. F. Lore is reported to have injured her knee in a fall in Florida and has had it in a cast. Her daughter, Mrs. Sanford Beyer, has taken Mr. and Mrs. Lore to her home in Beaver for two weeks.

What Do Teen-Agers Like? Money

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
America's teen-agers apparently do not believe that the best things in life are free.

Not many of them, as they pour out of the nation's high schools and colleges for summer vacations, are dreaming of a shady river bank and a fishing pole.

They are more likely to be dreaming of hustling boxes in a warehouse, sitting behind a desk in an office, running a tractor, or any of a hundred other occupations.

When school's out, they want the money coming in.

A Connecticut employment official disagrees. It's not lack of something to do, he says, but simply money that sends the boys and girls out to hunt jobs.

College expenses are going up every year, he says, and youngsters now feel they must have things once considered luxuries—television sets, radios, cars.

Dr. Lawrence Shepsher, public school superintendent at Wichita,

Kan., thinks the teen-agers get "fed up with working just with their heads, with abstract, academic courses."

"They need and want laboratory experience, working with their hands—and they have an impelling desire to earn their own money and to be independent," he said.

Practically all the experts point out that, in addition to the other reasons cited, there's a simple statistical reason for so many youthful job-hunters—the fact that there was a baby boom at the end of World War II. The same population explosion that jams the schools the rest of the year is jamming the employment offices now.

And the sad fact is that in practically all areas of the country, only a fraction of those seeking full-time jobs will find them.

The Texas Unemployment Commission has put a new group of youth coordinators on the job after its experience last year, when it was able to find 3,170 permanent jobs and 1,838 summer jobs for young people—but had 16,000 applicants.

Florida's State Employment Service estimates that only one out of three teen-aged job seekers found work last summer, and this summer will be about the same.

A New York state employment official, Alex Altheim, says that despite an extensive program of farm work for city boys, and various types of "made" summer work, "we couldn't possibly cope with the demand even if our entire staff was working only on summer jobs and not taking care of others at all."

Russell Hand, manager of the Omaha office of the Nebraska State Employment Service, makes a similar prediction—only about one-third of the expected 3,500 applicants will find jobs.

One big reason why it will be tough for the teen-agers to find jobs is that it's tough for many of their elders. In sections where adult unemployment is too high, employers who must pay minimum wages are more inclined to hire adults, even for seasonal work.

Mechanization on the farm has eliminated countless jobs, like the bean picking in Wisconsin that used to attract many youths, but is now done by machine.

Constitution Of State Hit As 'Wasteful'

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pennsylvania's constitution has been described as a wasteful relic from "horse and buggy" days which costs the state $100 million annually in waste.

In an address Wednesday night Milton J. Shapp, chairman of the Committee for State Constitutional Revision, said the out-dated constitution is a major cause of the state's slipping economy.

Shapp cited the state's justices of the peace, sheriffs and magistrates as examples of waste and said Pennsylvania has at least 5,000 unnecessary offices which cost $25 million yearly in salaries alone.

In an interview before addressing an Allegheny County group interested in constitutional revision, Shapp said the constitution, adopted in 1874, is a "horse and buggy constitution in the space age."

He said many of the offices established by the constitution are no longer necessary.

Guard Maneuvers Sunday Before Leaving for Camp

The Warren Unit of the First Battle Group, Pennsylvania National Guard, will stage its final maneuvers on Sunday.

With the Corry unit, the local command will stage the maneuvers on Sunday, prior to going leaving on its annual 15-day summer camp at A. P. Hill Military Reservation in Virginia.

Sunday's maneuvers will be conducted on the 200-acre farm of Capt. Archie Woodin of Bear Lake.

QUICKIES By Ken Reynolds

"If you'd send your clothes to that cleaner in the Times-Mirror Want Ads—you could look as good as that dummy!"

The day-long session will consist of rehearsing for training the unit in operations that will be encountered in the summer training program.

Planning for the summer camp and the movement of the 112th Infantry Regiment to Virginia took place last week.

Col. Robert B. Allen of Bradford, commanding officer of the 1st Battalion, 112th Infantry, will participate in the maneuvers.

In addition to Warren and Corry, units from Union City, Kane, Bradford, Meadville, Oil City and Franklin, will participate in the maneuvers.

The area units will leave on the 15-day training exercise on July 17. They will bivouac in Clearfield and Frederick, Md., before arriving at the military reservation in Virginia.

Three More Welfare Meetings Planned

The
World Today
By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is probably no activity in which the Kennedy administration has been so vague—or silent—as on the economic and military aid it is giving South Viet Nam.

The United States, under the Kennedy and Eisenhower administrations combined, has put about $2 billion in aid into South Viet Nam in its fight against Communist guerrillas.

President Kennedy has sent a force of perhaps 6,000 military men there, plus various kinds of military equipment, including about 80 helicopters.

Exact information on the equipment, the men, and what they're doing is supposed to be classified technically as a military secret.

The French, before they gave up, held South Viet Nam as a colony. Now the country, with its own government under President Diem, is in effect a dictatorship. The Communist guerrillas had been making a lot of progress.

When Kennedy was a senator he emphasized repeatedly that South Viet Nam needed economic aid and reforms to give the masses of the people a tangible reason for opposing the Communists and their promises.

Last October Kennedy sent his military adviser, Gen. Maxwell Taylor, over there to see what was needed. Last December, after Taylor's return, the administration let out this information:

That military help to Viet Nam would be increased and that the Diem government had agreed to a dozen new steps—including social reforms and more representative government—to make the anti-Communist fight tougher.

Everything since then—on the subject of reforms—has been extremely vague.

But what kind of help the American military forces are giving South Vietnamese has also been extremely shadowy. Kennedy has said this is a sensitive subject.

Here are some bits of information picked out of AP stories which have come out of South Viet Nam in the past six months about the American military role there.

American fliers ferry South Vietnamese troops in helicopters to the battle zone. U.S. pilots are in the cockpits of Vietnamese fighting planes, instructing Di-em's pilots in "the learn while you fight" principle.

Further: U.S. advisers are in the jungles, marshes and forests, working with Vietnamese commanders down to the company level. And one AP dispatch reported a U.S. Army field grade officer as saying:

"Our people are fighting along with the Vietnamese, counterpart to counterpart.

"American servicemen are being shot at by the (Communist) Viet Cong and they are shooting back. We're supplying arms and equipment and we're fighting and, if that isn't war, I don't know what is."

Unemployment Claims Drop During Week

HARRISBURG (AP)—Continued claims for unemployment compensation dropped to 153,867 in Pennsylvania last week—the lowest level in the state in four and a half years.

A. Allen Sulcove, secretary of the Labor and Industry Department, reported Wednesday that last week's continued claims were 5,708 lower than those of the week ending May 25 and 80,264 less than claims filed in the same week in 1961.

Sulcove credited the decrease mostly to job recalls in the construction and apparel industries.

Initial claims for unemployment compensation also dropped by two per cent to 24,995 last week, he added.

This decrease was attributed to fewer layoffs in the bituminous mining, apparel, primary metals and service industries.

from plant diseases, insects and weeds in the United States is about $13 billion.

"DIAL-A-PRAYER"
RA 3-7729

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State and Local Welfare Commission is planning three more meetings with county leaders this month in its efforts to determine where welfare programs can best be operated—at the state or local level.

Stanley J. Brody, executive secretary of the commission, said the future meetings will be similar to an informal session held Wednesday with officials of seven of the state's nine third-class counties.

The sessions are scheduled for June 12 in Harrisburg for officials of fourth-class counties, June 15 in Pittsburgh for fifth and sixth class county leaders and June 18 in Harrisburg for officials of seventh and eighth-class counties.

Commissioners from the seven third class counties went on record Wednesday as being ready to accept responsibility for administering a unified state welfare program.

Brody said the commissioners came up with two recommendations for administering welfare programs.

One of the proposals called for larger counties—first through fifth class—to administer the program on a county level. The other recommendation proposed that sixth, seventh and eighth class counties be combined into a single region and operated on a state level.

The smaller regions would appoint county personnel to a regional advisory board to represent them on the state level.

The commissioners also saw a definite need for a unified welfare program which would include public assistance and child welfare, Brody said.

Child welfare currently is administered at the county level, he explained, while public assistance is operated on a state level.

The commissioners said they were ready to accept administrative responsibilities of the public assistance program, but could not assume the financial responsibility.

Instead, they recommend that a specific tax fund be earmarked for use in assuring continuity of the assistance program—similar to the gas tax which is used for financing highway construction and the sales tax which is used for education.

throughout the state on the proper division of welfare responsibilities.

MM Is Sick, Producers Tired, Show Is Late

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marilyn Monroe says she's sick and her producers say they're sick and tired.

Marilyn, complaining of a virus, showed up only once in the first 15 days of shooting on "Something's Got to Give."

"Even when she does show up," said a high front-office source at 20th Century-Fox, "she isn't prepared for her role. She comes late and leaves early."

The studio source, who asked anonymity, hinted Wednesday that producers are ready to look for a replacement—possibly Kim Novak.

One of the few unconcerned people at the studio is co-star Dean Martin, who is calling himself "the highest paid golfer in history."

Marilyn herself couldn't be reached for comment.

Thundershowers Hit Parts Of Wyoming, New England

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Showers and thundershowers hit scattered sections from Wyoming to New England and in parts of the South again today but generally fair weather prevailed in the Far West.

Wet weather was reported in many areas during the night, with severe thundershowers in sections of the Plains. Tornadoic winds, heavy rain and hail hit some areas.

A heavy downpour drenched Goodland, Kan. with amounts reported up to four inches. Some flooding was reported. Hail was reported two to three inches deep in a mile wide strip 10 miles south of Goodland.

A tornado struck northeast of Amarillo, Tex., but no damage was reported. A twister also hit the Polk, Neb., area, about 80 miles west of Omaha, in the wake of a severe thunderstorm.

Showers and thunderstorms continued during the morning from central Wyoming into southeastern Texas. Showers sprinkled areas in West Virginia, western South Carolina, Southern New England, North Dakota and Minnesota. Rain fell in the Middle Mississippi Valley and showery weather also was reported in parts of the Ohio and Tennessee Valleys, and the Gulf and South Atlantic Coast states.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 85 in Needles, Calif. to 36 in Rock Springs, Wyo. Readings were in the 60s and 70s in most of the Mississippi Valley and in the 50s and 60s in the Pacific Coast region.

Lawrence Sees 'Nightmare' in Opportunities

BROOKLYN, N. Y. (AP)—The dilemma of providing adequate opportunities for higher education will become a nightmare in the next decade, Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania said today.

"It will require every resource we have at our command to meet its challenge," Lawrence said in remarks prepared for commencement exercises at Long Island University.

"It is no longer a question of whether we can afford to provide broader higher education," he added. "The fact is that we cannot afford to fail to do so."

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The Common Market's impact on the rest of the world is suddenly mushrooming all over the front pages.

A small trade war is threatened between the trading bloc and the United States over carpet and glass tariffs on our part and certain chemicals, paints and textiles on the part of the six European nations.

Australia, New Zealand, Canada, India, Pakistan—all are protesting the possible loss to them if Britain joins the Common Market at the expense of abandoning preferential treatment for nations of the British Commonwealth.

Even the Communist countries are debating in Moscow today how to counteract the growing power of the Common Market in Western Europe that is crippling their trade.

The impact is felt on political as well as trade policies, on domestic as well as foreign programs.

The U.S. Congress is deep in a tariff debate. The central question: how best the United States can deal with the Common Market threat or take advantage of its promise of expanded trade if we cooperate.

The British government may face a political crisis as opposing parties take sides, even split amongst themselves, on the commonwealth problem.

Soviet policies may well be affected. Many of the Common Market inroads involve trade with the satellites rather than with Russia itself. The Soviet Union has been selling crude oil and certain types of steel to Western Europe at prices well below what its satellites must pay.

In all parts of the world, including the Common Market itself, the current problems are fluid. It is this uncertainty as to the final direction that upsets business and politicians most.

For the Common Market isn't a complete thing yet by any means. Quarrels over treatment of agricultural products still divide the six members—France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

And still very much in doubt is what progress they may make towards some form of political as well as trade unity. Age-old national and racial differences are proving hard to surmount.

But for all its unsolved problems and the uncertainties about its final form, the Common Market is a very solid fact today.

The current danger is that failure to come to terms with it on tariffs, import quotas and currency or other trade barriers could divide the Western world into warring trade blocs.

It's this danger that spices the political debates on both sides of the Atlantic, both sides of the Pacific, and perhaps within the walls of the Kremlin.

Lutherans Increase Pastors' Pay

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—The Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church wound up its final convention here Wednesday with a recommendation to boost minimum pastoral salaries to $4,500 a year.

The new minimum was included in a proposal calling for salary increases for all synod pastors according to congregation size.

However, the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, president of the church group, emphasized that the proposed new salary scale is "nothing guaranteed." "No congregation is coerced into this," Dr. Putman declared. "This is a reasonable standard to be attained and congregations ought not to be satisfied until it is attained."

Under the recommendation, pastors of congregations with less than 400 members would be paid $4,500 to $7,000 a year.

Other new salary scales would include: $5,500-$8,000 at congregations with between 400 and 900 members; $6,500-$10,000 at congregations with between 900 and 1,500 members; and $7,500-no limit at congregations with more than 1,500 members.

Wednesday's session was the last planned meeting of the present Central Pennsylvania Synod before formal organization of the new Lutheran Church in America.

The ULCA will merge in July with other Lutheran Church branches. The Central Pennsylvania Synod will remain virtually the same geographically, but will include 19 new congregations from adjacent ULCA synods and in the Augustana Lutheran Church.

Formal organization of the new synod will take place here in October.

Funeral Information Will Be Found Under Another Heading

MRS. EARL L. CARMANY
Mrs. Emma M. Carmany, wife of Earl L. Carmany of 329 West 20th St., Erie, died of a heart condition Monday evening in St. Vincent Hospital in that city. A native of North Warren, she had lived in the Erie area the last 17 years.

Surviving, besides her husband, are a son, David H. Andress of Pittsford RD 1; nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, a brother, Donald E. Bettis of DeWittville, N. Y.; a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Cooper of Kissimmee, Fla.; two nephews, Thomas A. Bettis of Jamestown, N. Y., and Gerald M. Bettis of San Angelo, Texas. Another son, Jack T. Andress, died in 1958.

The funeral service will be conducted at 11 a. m. Friday in Erie, the Rev. Clair O. Dufford of St. John's Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will follow in Oakland Cemetery, Warren, with the Rev. Marshall Gante of Saron Lutheran Church in Youngsville, conducting the committal service.

MRS. ELIZA L. WERLE
The funeral service of Mrs. Eliza L. Werle of 707 East St., who died Monday, was conducted at 2 p. m. Wednesday by the Rev. Frederick B. Haer of First Lutheran Church. He was assisted by the Rev. Gene Sackett, pastor of Bethel EUB Church.

Burial followed in the family plot in Oakland Cemetery with Robert Hansen, Willard Smith, Herbert Stover, Louis Lodging, Ebert Clark and Ralph Way serving as bearers.

Attending the service from out of town were Mrs. S. Harriett Pratt, Kinzua; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pratt, Cherry Hill, N. J.; Katherine Werle and Ray Estergreen of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hertzler, Mrs. Bertha Hertzler and Mrs. Myrna Taylor, North East; Mrs. Margaret Cox, Erie; Mrs. Mabel Decker, Lander; Henry Knapp, Russell RD.

GEORGE B. HULTBERG
George B. Hultberg, 129 Pennsylvania Ave. west, died at 2:50 a. m. Wednesday in Warren General Hospital following several months' illness.

A native of Chancellers Valley, Mr. Hultberg lived in Warren until 1944, when he went to Cleveland, Ohio. He returned to Warren last December. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of Chief Complanter Post 135, American Legion. He was a member, also, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church; and of Warren Lodge 233, BPOE.

Surviving are two children, Mrs. Robert Wright of Lyndhurst, Ohio, and Mrs. James Crandall of Somerset, N. J.; four grandchildren, Stephen, Christopher and Mary Jane Wright of Lyndhurst; Karen Crandall of Somerset; a brother and a sister, Carl Hultberg and Miss Edith Hultberg, Warren; a niece, Miss Jean Hultberg of Warren. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hultberg, and a brother, Albin.

His pastor, the Rev. Carl Nelson, will conduct the funeral service at 1 p. m. Saturday, with burial following in Oakland Cemetery.

Funerals

GEORGE B. HULTBERG
Friends will be received at the Peterson Funeral Home at the usual calling hours, starting at 7 p. m. today, and the service will be conducted there at 1 p. m. Saturday. The Rev. Carl Nelson, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will officiate and burial will follow in Oakland Cemetery.

MRS. EARL L. CARMANY
Friends are being received from 7 until 10 p. m. today in the Edgar M. Nelson Funeral Home, 21st and Myrtle Sts., Erie, and the service will be conducted there at 11 a. m. Friday. Burial will follow in Oakland Cemetery, Warren, the Rev. Marshall Gante, Lutheran minister of Youngsville, officiating for the committal service.

ATTENTION—ELKS!

All members Warren Lodge No. 223, B. P. O. Elks are requested to meet at 7:30 tonight at the Peterson Funeral Home to participate in the Memorial Ritual for our late Brother, George B. Hultberg.

UN Opening 16th Session

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly resumes its 16th annual session today to debate whether to fix July 1 as independence day for Belgium's troubled African trust territory of Ruanda-Urundi, described by some delegates as a potential little Congo.

The 104-nation assembly has a request from 39 African and Asian delegations that it also discuss how to bring independence to the British territory of Southern Rhodesia, termed by some another South Africa.

The opening meeting was set aside for a speech by Archbishop Makarios, visiting the United States and the U.N. for the first time since he became president of an independent Cyprus.

In deciding last Feb. 23 to hold the resumed session, the assembly anticipated setting July 1 as the date to end trusteeship and proclaim independence in both Ruanda and Urundi, the two little countries that make up the territory.

In a report published Wednesday night, the five-nation U.N. commission for Ruanda-Urundi said Urundi was under control and the assembly should end trusteeship there July 1.

But it said there had been bloodshed and racial antagonism lately in Ruanda, and urged that before deciding to turn that country loose on July 1, the assembly should first decide whether the coalition cabinet formed May 14 was likely to last.

heavy guard during the night from Fresnes Prison in Paris, where Jouhaud also is held. There was no advance announcement of who was being executed, and rumors spread that Jouhaud had faced the firing squad.

Jouhaud's lawyer, Yves Perrussel, spiked the rumors. Under French law the lawyer for a condemned man must be present at his execution and Perrussel was reached at his home after the rifle volleys cracked out.

"You see, I'm still here," he told a reporter. "It was not Jouhaud."

HYMNALS FOR BLIND
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A little-known project at a Louisville firm enables the blind to join in the singing of hymns at their churches, even if they don't know the words.

Hymnals in braille are turned out at the American Printing House for the Blind.

"They're particularly valuable to blind choir singers and blind organists," says Miss Marjorie Hooper, braille and large type editor. "You'll be surprised at the number of blind organists."

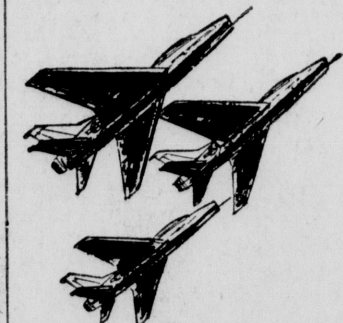

Printing of currently used hymnals for the blind began in the 1930s. One of the first was the St. Gregory Hymnal and Catholic Choir Book.

The Catholic Hymnal, Methodist Hymnal and a general Protestant hymnal all include musical notations as well as the words, although the two Lutheran hymnals do not.

Another denomination, the Episcopalians, also has been talking with Miss Hooper about putting their hymnal into braille.

New York Stock List

NEW YORK (AP)—A hesitant stock market stalled near dead center early this afternoon as trading slowed to its quietest pace in more than two weeks.

Reflecting the pause, The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 222.70 with industrials up .40, rails off .36 and utilities off .10.

Some of the uncertainty was linked with President Kennedy's news conference, scheduled for after the New York market close. Movements of most key stocks were fractional, a few moving a point or so either way.

Nonferrous metals, steels, and electrical equipments helped the industrial section of the list nudge slightly higher but this was balanced by a softer tendency among the rails and utilities.

Volume in the morning was 1.03 million shares compared with Wednesday's 1.6 million for the like period. After a flurry at the opening, trading slackened to a dull rate.

General Motors traded about unchanged, while Ford rose nearly a point. Chrysler dipped slightly. American Motors held firm and Studebaker-Packard lost a fraction.

AT&T advanced a point and Eastman Kodak and International Nickel slightly more.

Home Blaze Kills Father, Five Children

Mrs. Neiswender said she did not see her husband or children again as flames swept the building. She ran to the home of neighbors, who immediately called firemen. The fire fighters arrived about 5 a. m., EDT, but the house was nearly completely destroyed then.

Mrs. Neiswender, 25, suffered burns of her face and the right side of her body.

Palmyra Fire Chief Lloyd Martin said the frame building was enveloped in flames by the time firemen arrived. It had three bedrooms, a living room, kitchen and a bath.

Dr. A. H. Heisey, Lebanon County coroner, who confirmed the identities of the victims, said the father was found with the one-year-old child cradled in his arms. The other four youngsters were lined up behind him, as if he had been trying to lead them to safety.

Fire Chief Martin said a neighbor reported hearing an explosion in the Neiswender home. When he looked out, he saw the cottage in flames.

Cause of the blaze was not determined immediately.

Windsor Cup, awarded to the Stenographers Club Prize and the Class of 1925 Cup, awarded for outstanding scholarship, leadership and citizenship.

The response will be given by Elsa Johnson, co-president of the class of 1962.

W. Scott Calderwood, member of the joint board, will present the diplomas. He will be introduced by Dr. Carl E. Whipple, schools superintendent.

THE response will be given by Nelson Johnson, Elsa's twin and co-president with her of the class.

The program will conclude with the Alma Mater and the recessional.

Owners William Eckman and John Hamm, both of Warren, opened the doors to fishing enthusiasts June 2 with a full line of live bait, including minnows, night crawlers, red worms and pike chubs. Soft-shelled crabs, grubs and hellgrammites will be handled by the Bait Box beginning June 15.

The Bait Box also carries a line of fishing tackle and reels. Bait boxes are available, as well as some fishing plugs and flies.

Bait is received from firms in Jamestown, N. Y. and Erie. The owners also furnish bait caught in the Warren area.

OAS Breaks Algerian 'Truce'

French officials received the news of the new terror war in dark pessimism.

"They are destroying the last chance of reconciliation with Moslems," one official said.

The Secret Army announced the end of its seven-day truce in the slaughter of Moslems with a pirate broadcast Wednesday night reporting a deadlock in its contacts with the Moslem nationalists.

"We are again taking up war—particularly in the economic field," the broadcast said. Women, children and older Europeans were advised to leave Algeria to "free the men for the scorched earth campaign."

Despite the talk of "scorched earth" the first targets again were Moslems on the streets of Algiers.

Machine-gun bullets sprayed from a speeding car at a group of Moslem workers on a street corner in the Hussein Dey area. Three of the Moslems slumped to the sidewalk fatally wounded.

Less than an hour later a Moslem en route to work was shot to death.

IBFO, Pa. Gas Agree on New Labor Contract

Pennsylvania Gas Co. and the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers (AFL-CIO) have reached agreement on a new contract.

The contract includes a .17 cents per hour wage increase, union shop, four weeks' paid vacation after 20 years' service and other benefits.

Samuel R. Campbell, president of Local 23, IBFO, said that fringe benefits for the union now amount to 62 cents an hour and that wage increases obtained for members since the workers were organized in 1952 total between $1.39 and $1.55 per hour.

Schenectady Kiwanian Talks Before Warren Members

Sam Lee, a member of the Schenectady (N.Y.) Kiwanian Club and a frequent visitor to Warren, spoke before the Warren Club at its regular meeting at the Blue Manor Wednesday.

His topic, "My 21 Years in Kiwanis," was in conjunction with the 40th anniversary of the Warren Kiwanian Club. Lee has been retired from General Electric laboratories since November of 1956. Prior to his retirement, he held the position of engineer in charge of GE Laboratories in Schenectady.

Speaking about how he first joined Kiwanis in 1941 and what Kiwanis has meant to him over the years, Lee stated that during his first year as a Kiwanian, because his job involved extensive traveling, he was only in attendance about 40 per cent of the time. Because of this, he thought of resigning, but then through the urging of his fellow club members decided that he could attend Kiwanis Club meetings in the towns where he traveled and thereby considerably improve his attendance. Using this idea he has attained a 20 year perfect attendance record.

He stated this has proved to be one of the greatest pleasures of his life, because there are over 5,000 Kiwanis Clubs in the United States and Canada he can visit. During his many years in Kiwanis, he has visited 115 different clubs and has spoke before various Kiwanis Clubs 128 times. He was president of the Schenectady club in 1947.

He urged members to use the Kiwanis theme, "We Build" in all of their undertakings and suggested that members promote the idea of visiting other Kiwanis Clubs either in their travels or through inter-club meetings. Lee was introduced by program chairman for the month, Bernie O'Brien.

Guests at yesterday's meeting included Merle See and Gurney Ball of Youngsville and Lloyd Cleveland of Warren. Philip Coyle was introduced as a new member of the club.

Tax Revision Bill Reported In Trouble

President Kennedy.

The tax bill in general was the chief subject of the meeting, with investment credit to give business a $1.35 billion incentive to modernize its plant and equipment.

The administration believes the credit would go a long way toward making the economy more efficient and productive.

The withholding plan is counted on to help pay for the investment credit.

It was learned that Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., second in seniority on the Democratic side of the finance committee, led off at the meeting with a defense of the withholding plan. He emphasized the present tax losses from unreported dividend and interest income.

Byrd then gave a rebuttal, stating his previously expressed view that the system would be unduly burdensome and that the Treasury has greatly exaggerated the losses.

One senator at the meeting even raised the question that the plan might be unconstitutional. Others said they were unable to explain it to their constituents.

Byrd said that Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon will be back before the committee next week to continue his defense of the bill.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., a finance member, voiced a plea on the floor Wednesday for shelving the bill. He was joined by Sen. Frank Carlson, R-Kan., who also served on the committee.

Beef cuts—roasts and steaks—and broiler-fryer chickens will compete for top attention from shoppers touring the nation's super markets and groceries this weekend.

One large chain said both rib roasts and the oven-ready variety have been marked down 10 cents a pound since a week ago.

Additionally, pork and ham were reported in plentiful supply at good prices in the Northeast and Southeast.

Eggs, especially the larger sizes, were described as exceptional values in some areas.

Lamb and veal generally were expected to be higher than a week ago.

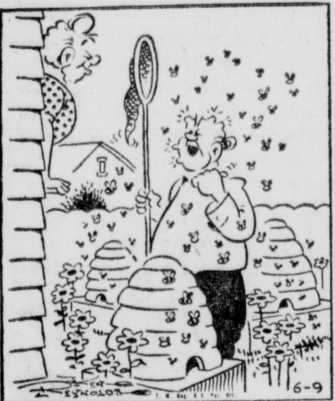

In the Northeast, merchants reported, vegetable counters will be loaded with beets, cabbage, corn, miscellaneous greens, spinach, rhubarb, Maine potatoes and lettuce.

Corn and potatoes also will be featured elsewhere across the country, along with such favorites as tomatoes, cucumbers, green beans, cabbage, celery, green onions and carrots.

Strawberries still are running strong in most sections, and peaches are beginning to come in from several Southern states.

Citrus fruits, including oranges, lemons and limes particularly, port and interviewed the first surviving casualties as they were ferried back from France. Their stories were true and awful.

On subsequent days through long months it was my privilege to help chronicle the unfolding splendor of our men's defeat of the German juggernaut.

It is hard now for me to realize that the great sea armada that forged our landing in France has long since been dismantled. That the vehicles on which we rode to victory are rust. That the armies of men who wielded so tremendous a purpose are forever time-scattered and can never be bugled together again, not at least as they were then in their prime.

On the morning of the 18th anniversary of D-Day, after looking again at my souvenir silver dish, I went into my living room. I pulled from a shelf a book called "Brave Men," written by a brave, dear dead friend named Ernie Pyle.

I opened it at random, and these words caught my eye:

"We have won this war because our men are brave, and because of many other things—because of Russia, and England, and the passage of time, and the gift of nature's materials. We did not win it because destiny created us better than all other peoples. I hope that in victory we are more grateful than we are proud. I hope we can rejoice in victory—but humbly. The dead men would not want us to gloat."

"All of us together will have to learn how to reassemble our broken world into a pattern so firm and so fair that another great war cannot soon be possible. To tell the simple truth, most of us over in France don't pretend to know the right answer. Submersion in war does not necessarily qualify a man to be the master of the peace. All we can do is fumble and try once more—try out of the memory of our anguish—and be as tolerant with each other as we can."

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Curtiss-Wright Corp. must give the state at least 90 days notice before disposing of or sub-letting its 50,000 acres of land in Clearfield, Cameron and Elk Counties, says Atty. Gen. David Stahl.

Stahl issued the statement Wednesday on the heels of remarks by State Sen. Albert R. Pechan, R-Armstrong, claiming Curtiss-Wright is planning to dispose of some of the land for $3.5 million.

Both Stahl and Forests and Waters Secretary Maurice Goddard, legal landlord for most of the land involved, said they had no knowledge—either officially or unofficially—of the reported transaction.

If the firm has decided to sell the land it must give the Commonwealth 90 days notice both under law and as part of an agreement signed in 1953, Stahl explained.

He also said the state has the option to prior purchase of the land by matching the offering price of any bona fide potential purchaser.

The agreement was signed in 1955 after the General Assembly authorized the sale of 9,000 acres of land in the area to the Curtiss-Wright Corp. for $22.50 an acre and permitted the state to lease 45,000 acres for 99 years at $30,000 a year.

Stahl said the lease agreement includes a restriction allowing Curtiss-Wright to sub-let the leased property to its subsidiaries with approval by the state. The agreement makes no mention of a third party leasing the property, the state official stated.

The land involved centers around Quehanna, near Clearfield County.

It was purchased by Curtiss-Wright initially as a research facility for aircraft engines. However, a decline in demand for aircraft engines for national defense has cut employment at the Quehanna facility to about 60 workers.

Pechan mentioned the possibility of Curtiss-Wright selling or sub-letting the land in a statement Monday in which he said he intended to spearhead a drive to bring new industry into the area. He said industry could use part of the 50,000-acre site with the remainder turned into a hunting-fishing recreation area.

"We are vitally interested in getting jobs for this depressed area," the senator said.

School Picnic Ends in Death Of Youth, 15

HANOVER, Pa. (AP)—A school picnic ended in tragedy Wednesday when Howard Stambaugh, 15, of Hanover R. D.3 drowned while swimming in a pond near West Manheim Twp.

Stambaugh was one of 25 sophomores from South Western Joint High School attending a picnic on a farm owned by the parents of classmate Paula Sterner.

York County Coroner Donald Withers said the youngster's body was recovered from the pond by Hanover police and firemen about an hour after he was reported missing.

BAKED CHICKEN dinner is easy to make, easy on the budget, and so good to eat. It bakes in less than an hour to top fluffy rice and serve with French-style green beans and mushroom caps.

Baked Chicken Is Quickie Meal

By LOIS McCLOSKEY
Times-Mirror Food Editor

Tender, tasty young broiler-fryers are a favorite warm weather fare because they are quick and easy to prepare, easy to eat, nutritious, and best of all real budget savers. They make a fine alternate for other meats, especially when light meals are in order, for they are just as delicious served cold as hot, they grill or barbecue to a golden, crusty color and go equally well in sandwiches and salads.

In the nutrition field, chicken also shines, serving for serving, chicken provides more protein and less calories than other popular meats. The same kind of bargain holds true for the edible portion; allowing for bones, gristle and cooking shrinkage, a dollar spent on chicken gives more edible meat than a dollar spent elsewhere in the meat department. It takes about two pounds of chicken to obtain one pound of meat free from bone and gristle and cooking loss.

One of the simplest ways to prepare these tender, young birds is to make the Baked Chicken pictured here served on a bed of rice garnished with French-style green beans and whole mushrooms. Just rub chicken parts or halves with a little butter to add to its juiciness, sprinkle with salt and pepper, place it in a pan and pop into the oven for 50 minutes, and the family meal is practically complete.

Baked Chicken

- 1 broiler-fryer quartered
- 2 tablespoons softened butter or margarine
- Salt and pepper
- ½ cup water

Rub chicken with butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place quarters, skin side down, in a shallow baking pan. Bake 30 minutes at 375 degrees. Turn chicken, add water and bake 20 minutes longer. If extra seasoning is desired add a sprinkle of tarragon or rosemary. We prefer the rosemary! To save on pan cleaning, the chicken may be baked in a foil-lined baking dish.

Deviled Chicken

- 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in serving portions
- Salt and pepper
- ½ cup fat, melted
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup hot water or soup stock
- 1½ teaspoons dry mustard
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 2 teaspoons tomato catsup
- ¼ teaspoon Tabasco sauce
- Paprika

Season chicken with salt and pepper and brown in melted fat. Remove from pan, stir in flour, add hot water; cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add remaining ingredients to sauce. Place chicken in sauce, cover pan and simmer until chicken is tender, about 1 hour. Or bake at 350 degrees for the same length of time. Allow ¾ pound of chicken for cash serving.

Chicken, Kentucky Style

- 1 broiler-fryer cut in serving portions
  - 1 cup biscuit mix
  - 1 egg
  - 1 cup milk
  - Salt and Pepper
- Dip chicken parts in mixture of egg and milk then toss in the biscuit mix and fry as desired. The baking powder in the mix puffs up the coating and forms a delicious crust. If a mix is not used, just add 1 teaspoon baking powder to 1 cup flour for the coating.

Braised Chicken

- 4 pounds frying chicken cut into serving portions
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- ½ cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon ground pepper

- ¼ cup butter or margarine
  - 1 tablespoon minced onion
  - 1 to 2 cups sour cream
- Rub chicken pieces with lemon juice; roll in mixture of the salt, pepper and flour and brown in butter. Place in a baking dish, add remaining ingredients and cover with sour cream. Cook covered at 325 degrees for 1½ hours or until chicken is tender. Serve with chopped parsley if desired, with mounds of cooked, fluffy rice. Serves 4 to 6 persons.

Hawaiian Chicken Salad

- 2 cups diced, cooked chicken
  - 1 cup fresh pineapple spears
  - ½ cup chopped celery
  - ¼ cup toasted, slivered almonds
  - 1 tablespoon minced onion
  - Salt and pepper
- Curried French dressing
Combine, chicken, pineapple, celery, almonds and seasonings. To 1 cup French Dressing add 1 teaspoon curry powder and blend well. Pour about ¼ cup over the salad mixture and chill at least 1 hour. Place generous mounds of the chicken on salad greens and serve with remainder of the Curried French Dressing.

Gelatin Chicken Salad

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1½ cup chicken broth
- 1 tablespoon grated onion
- Salt and pepper
- 1 cup cooked sliced chicken
- 1 cup sour cream
- ¼ cup chopped nuts
- ¼ cup chopped ripe olives

Soften gelatin in ½ cup of the chicken broth. Place over low heat and stir until gelatin dissolves. Remove from heat, add the remaining ¾ cup broth, onion and salt and pepper. Chill until almost set. Fold in remaining ingredients, pour into a lightly oiled 3-cup mold and chill until firm. Serve on salad greens with mayonnaise.

Fruited Chicken Salad

- 1 orange, peeled and sectioned
- 16 fresh grapes, skinned and

- seeded
- 1 banana, sliced
- 1 apple, diced
- ¼ cup, toasted, slivered almonds
- 3 cups diced cooked chicken
- 1 cup mayonnaise

Cut orange sections in half and add to all other ingredients then mix lightly but thoroughly with the mayonnaise or salad dressing or with ½ cup mayonnaise blended with ½ cup sour cream. Chill at least 1 hour then serve on salad greens. Makes 8 servings. This is especially good with cucumber sandwiches.

Cucumber Sandwiches

Grate unpeeled cucumber to make 1 cup when drained and squeezed quite dry. Add 1 grated onion, 1 teaspoon horseradish and blend with sour cream or mayonnaise. Spread on well-buttered white bread and cut into finger-size sandwiches. Be sure to make plenty for this is the most refreshing summer sandwich we know of.

DELICIOUS TREAT — Snow Cake Ring heaped with cherry ice cream is the perfect dessert for an engagement party, a shower for the bride-to-be, or a festive luncheon. It's also not too fancy for a cooling summer-time dessert that the whole family will enjoy, coming back again and again for extra helpings.

Berries Not Seasonal Fare if You Have Freezer

Strawberry shortcake the year 'round is possible for families who freeze berries in season and in their prime. Since shortcake calls for sliced or crushed berries for the filling and whole ones on top, it is wise to freeze some each way.

A good quality frozen fruit can be obtained only when fully ripe, sound berries are used and they should be frozen within twelve hours after picking. The berries should be picked in the cool of the morning, if possible, then work quickly to get them into the freezer or to a locker plant.

Washing strawberries in cold, running water or ice water is of utmost importance in preparing them for freezing. It removes the sand and at the same time, plumps the berries and firms them. After sorting, wash a few at a time using three changes of water. Lift the berries out of the water each time rather than pouring it off, leaving sand in the bottom. After the last washing, remove the hulls and place the berries on large trays on several layers of absorbent paper to remove excess moisture.

DIFFERENT methods are used for sweetening or not sweetening, depending upon the way the berries are packed for freezing, and they must of course be packed in moisture-vapor proof containers.

For fullest, finest flavor, the best sweetening is dry, granulated sugar, thoroughly mixed with the berries. But for holding shape or texture of the berries, packing them in syrup is better and less likely to bruise the fruit.

One part of sugar to four parts "by weight" of halved strawberries rates best in flavor. Next best is a 40 percent sugar syrup made with three cups sugar dissolved in four cups cold water, or a syrup mixture of one part light corn syrup to three parts of the 40 percent sugar syrup.

LOWEST ratings go to berries frozen without any sweetening or with all corn syrup. In texture, berries frozen in syrup rate better than those frozen with sugar. Thus if shape is important, as in freezing whole berries, a syrup mixture is preferred over dry sugar. In color there is very little difference among the sweetenings used.

One crate of strawberries weighing 36 pounds should average 15 quarts of frozen berries. For those who have not yet frozen asparagus, one crate or two dozen bunches should yield 10 quarts. One makes about 15 quarts of frozen rhubarb. One bushel of spinach yields approximately 9 quarts when blanched and frozen.

If a few whole strawberries, with hulls on are wanted for garnishing, they may be dried, then rolled in sugar and frozen on a tray. When frozen solidly, pack in moisture-vapor proof containers. Serve them as a garnish on fruit or as a topping for ice cream while still quite frosty as they become mush when fully defrosted.

MORE frozen strawberries are served as shortcake than in any other way and there are many ways to make the shortcake. Some use sponge cake, some make a one-egg cake, but the ideal shortcake is made with baking powder biscuit dough.

It can be made into a family size shortcake or served as individual biscuits. For the dough use a favorite recipe or a biscuit mix, adding 1 to 3 teaspoons sugar and 1 tablespoon cooking oil or melted butter to a cup of the mix. The liquid may be top milk, cream, whole milk or re-constituted nonfat dry milk. For either the large cake or biscuits, roll them in two layers, spreading the bottom layer with melted butter, then topping with another layer. This makes for easy separation to add the berries which have been defrosted in the container. Serve the shortcake warm with whipped cream, plain cream, half-and-half or top milk and by all means be generous with the berries.

Freezers a Blessing On Hot Summer Days

The home freezer is designed to serve the family every day of the year but it is on these hot and sultry days that it really pays dividends in cool cooking and eating and cuts down on the time spent in a hot kitchen.

IF you wish you were in the country, eating in the shade of the old apple tree, during this long holiday week-end, but don't want to travel the congested highways, then plan "spur of the moment" picnics from your freezer and eat them in your own back yard.

Freezer-picnic lunches can be either of these two type: A lunch-box type, using sandwiches and frozen combinations from the freezer, or a back yard cook-out meal using hamburger patties, frozen franks or shish kebabs from the freezer, either or both to be topped with ice cream from the freezer, or a frozen cake baked at a leisure moment.

IF the picnic is to be the basket type, have all finger foods to save on dishwashing. Plenty of fried chicken, defrosted in the refrigerator to make safe eating on a hot day, a raw vegetable finger salad, frozen cream cheese and relish sandwiches and this will leave just enough room for Devil's food cup cakes and lemonade made with the frozen concentrate.

If you have an electric portable roaster, put it to work with a meal that goes directly from the freezer to the roaster and travels without a spill to the shaded forest. It may consist of meat loaf, scalloped sweet potatoes, green beans with mushrooms and a cherry pudding. Rolls from the freezer will defrost enroute sufficiently, to be warmed in the retained heat of the roaster when you reach your destination.

IF defrosted first, this whole meal will cook in the roaster oven in from one and one-fourth to one and a half hours. Allow about one-half hour extra time if the food is placed in the roaster-oven directly from the freezer, after preheating it to 375 degrees.

Another "from the freezer to the roaster-oven" meal which makes a hit at a picnic and takes an hour and a half in a pre-heated roaster, set at 375 degrees, is chicken casserole, buttered carrots and peas and corn-on-the-cob. For dessert, take ice cream in an insulated carton or a variety of fresh fruits, cheese and a hot vacuum bottle or jug of hot coffee and there's good eating, at home or in our secluded forest picnic spots.

Buccos Lose 5th Straight, Still in 4th

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, reeling from five successive defeats, will try to salvage a game tonight from the disastrous homestand against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Dodgers, riding high with 17 victories in their last 19 outings, routed the Pirates twice Wednesday night—taking an 8-3 decision in the completion of a suspended game and then winning 5-3 in the regularly scheduled encounter.

It moved the Dodgers to within a half-game of the first-place San Francisco Giants.

Pittsburgh remained in fourth place but dropped to within 1½ games of the fifth-place St. Louis Cardinals.

The suspended game was almost a sure thing for the Dodgers since it resumed in the top of the ninth with the score 7-3 in Los Angeles' favor.

Tom Sturdivant gave up another run in the ninth and then Sandy Koufax, baseball's strikeout king, set the Pirates down in order to insure the ninth victory for Don Drysdale.

In the regularly scheduled game, two Pirate errors proved costly. They opened the way for the first three Dodger runs to overcome.

Pirate starter Joe Gibbon, recently back from a short stay in the minors where he worked his sore arm in shape, had a good game going until a bobble in the seventh.

The error came after Willie Davis had singled and opened the way for Ron Fairly's two-run homer.

The Dodgers added two more runs in the eighth and sent Gibbon to the showers. Maury Wills'

LA Grabs Two; Giants Lose!

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Operation overhaul has moved into its second stage for the Los Angeles Dodgers, tearing toward the top again in that two-team struggle for supremacy in the National League.

Reeling off their second victory streak in an attempt to catch front-running San Francisco, the Dodgers upped their latest string to four games by winning a pair from Pittsburgh Wednesday night—8-3 in the completion of Tuesday's suspended game and 5-3 in the regulation contest.

The Giants, who have held first place since April 30, lost to the Chicago Cubs 4-3.

St. Louis dropped third-place Cincinnati 7½ games back by edging the Reds 4-3, Milwaukee beat Houston 6-3 and Philadelphia extended the Mets' losing skid to 17, sweeping a two-nighter 2-0 and 2-1.

The Dodgers snapped a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning of the regulation game on Ron Fairly's two-run homer off Joe Gibbon (0-1), then put it away with two in the eighth. The Pirates chased rookie Joe Moeller (4-4) in the ninth with two walks and a single. Ed Roebuck yielded a run on Dick Stuart's single before Ron Perranoski came on to get the final out.

Giants reliever Don Larsen (3-1) walked four consecutive Cub batters in the ninth, giving the last free pass to Don Landrum to break a 3-3 tie as Lou Brock crossed with the winner. Dick Ellsworth (4-7) went the distance for the victory.

Beveragemen Hand Betts First Loss

Previously unbeaten Betts entered their first entry in the loss column last night when Warren Beveragemen handed them a 10-5 drubbing.

If it wasn't for a very bad first inning, Betts' pitcher Booney Sturdevant would have had a nice win to take home but Beveragemen scored six runs before things really got started and on only two hits.

Booney had trouble finding his control at first and walked the first two men to face him. With the two men on, Lou Cummings and Berry Drexler came to bat and poked out back-to-back singles that were good for three runs.

After retiring two men, Sturdevant hit Ed Cummings and Ed Confer reached first on a walk.

From that time on, it was pretty much of an even game with Betts scoring lone runs in the first, fourth and seventh and two in the fifth. The Beveragemen got two more in the second, one in the fourth and one in the fifth.

For Beveragemen, Dean Stewart was the winning pitcher. Stewart gave up nine hits, struck out four and walked one. Sturdevant gave up eight hits, walked four, struck out four and hit two. Stewart also hit a batter.

McQuone New Kane Grid Mentor

KANE, Pa. (AP)—Bernard McQuone, 26, has been named head football coach at Kane Area Joint Senior High School.

McQuone, a native of Punxsutawney, was appointed yesterday to succeed Robert King, who resigned to accept another coaching job.

McQuone spent the past three years as coach of East Brady Area High School. He's a graduate of Juniata College.

Ski Club Outing

The Warren County Ski Club's scheduled June 23rd outing has been rescheduled for June 30, President James Keller announced today.

Conflicting dates was the reason for the rescheduling, he said. The outing is to be conducted at Cinderella Lake.

Red Schoendienst's pinch-hit single drove in the run that snapped a 2-2 tie in the seventh and the Cards added the clincher against the Reds in the eighth on a single by Stan Musial and three walks by Joey Jay (8-5). Larry Jackson (5-6) went the route for the victory.

Making his first start since April 29 for Milwaukee, Lew Burdette allowed a dozen hits. An eight-hit attack was enough to beat the Colts. Jim Golden (3-3) was the loser.

Tight pitching won both games for the Phils with Cal McLish (5-1) grabbing the opener with a seven-hitter and Art Mahaffey (6-7) nailing the nightcap with a four-hitter. In the first game Roger Craig (2-8) took the loss. Wes Covington tagged Al Jackson (2-7) with the second game defeat when he lashed a pinch-hit single to score Bob Oldis in the ninth and break a 1-1 deadlock.

Eddie Gottlieb Is Named GM of SF Warriors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Eddie Gottlieb disapproved the saying that you can't have your cake and eat it too.

He sold the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association for a record $850,000 so the franchise could operate in San Francisco. Now he becomes its general manager for at least a year here.

And he conceivably could become president of the pro loop since Maurice Podoloff has announced plans to retire after next season.

Gottlieb's appointment with the San Francisco Warriors was announced Wednesday night by Matty Simmons of New York, one of the five partners in the new corporate setup and chairman of its board.

Undisclosed was the salary for Gottlieb, who founded the Warriors 16 years ago in Philadelphia. A San Franciscan Tom Gray takes over as president of the club.

Hot Stove Results

Components Wins

Last night, in Cadet action, Warren Components downed American Legion by the score of 6-5, on Thomas Coupling field.

The winners were behind by the score of 5-3 going into the last of the seventh but managed to get to the pitcher, Roy Swanson for three big runs. For the winners, Jim Reider was the winning pitcher going the full seven innings. Swanson was only tagged for one extra base hit, and that was by Bud Erickson.

Steals Six Bases

In the junior division, Shaw House handed Industrial Oil their second straight loss by the score of 7-3. The winning pitcher, Danny Langdon pitched a great ball game, not allowing the opposing team any extra base hits.

Pat Crommiller kept the Industrial Oil battery on the ball with his base stealing. He stole six bases including home for the winning team. Lee Goldthwaite and Dave Cummings sparked Shaw House with a double each.

Struthers Wins

Struthers barely got by Pitts-Des Moines last night, 9-8, on the West End Diamond.

Frank Greco and Jay Loomis had a double and triple, respectively, for the losers but to no avail. Butch Darr was the winning pitcher with Pat Hultquist taking the loss.

2nd Straight Win

Sylvania downed Warren Asphalt 9-5 to take their second straight Cadet win. Dave Sorenson slammed a homer for the winners and Dave Shafer also hit one for Asphalt.

Ray Sadecki Suspended For Failure to Appear

Ray Sadecki

By IRWIN FRANK
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)— Bonus baby Ray Sadecki, suspended by the St. Louis Cardinals for failing to show up for Wednesday night's game, says being traded is the answer to his problem.

But General Manager Bing Devine, who suspended the young lefthander indefinitely, says "He's no more tradeable today than he was yesterday."

Sadecki, 21, sat in his apartment during the game with Cincinnati while Devine watched it from the press box.

"I plan to call Devine Thursday—I've got to get this thing settled," Sadecki said.

"Fine," said Devine, "I'd be happy to talk with him. I don't want to be hard-nosed about it." Sadecki's troubles started Tuesday night when he was brought in as a relief pitcher at the start of the sixth inning against Cincinnati. He gave up two home runs, committed two errors and allowed five runs to score without retiring a man before Manager Johnny Keane yanked him out in disgust.

The Cards went on to win 10-9 in 11 innings.

Said Keane after the game: "The worst exhibition of effort I've ever seen on a major league diamond."

He fined Sadecki $250. Sadecki signed with the Cards for a bonus estimated at $50,000 right out of high school in Kansas City, Kan., in 1958.

He won 14 games for the Cards last year and this year owns a 2-3 record and the worst earned run average on the team—7.20.

Yankees Go Ahead Alone in AL, Terry Shuts Out Indians, 5 to 0

American League pitchers, hit unmercifully in that record home run barrage of last year, seem to be coming back into their own.

Pitching certainly was the key Wednesday with star performers ranging from Ralph Terry of New York's front-running Yankees to Claude Osteen of Washington's last-place Senators.

Terry turned in a four-hitter as the Yankees broke their first-place deadlock with Cleveland, beating the Indians 5-0. Jim Kaat pitched a five hit shutout for Minnesota in a 7-0 victory that pushed the Twins into third.

Jim Bunning went 11 strong innings in Detroit's 3-2 decision over Boston for a split of their day-night doubleheader. The Red Sox shaded the Tigers in the afternoon game 2-1 on Bill Monbouquette's pitching and Frank Malone's ninth inning homer.

Ken McBride again proved a jinx against his former club, out-dueling Ray Herbert as the Los Angeles Angels edged the Chicago White Sox 1-0. And Osteen and the Senators beat Baltimore 2-1.

Terry, now 7-4, struck out 10 and put down 16 Indians in order during one stretch. The lean right-hander issued just one walk.

The Yankees were checked on three hits by Jim (Mudcat) Grant until the sixth, when back-to-back homers by Roger Maris and John Blanchard gave them control.

The Twins took command early, rapping A's ace Jerry Walker for eight hits and six runs before chasing him in the fourth.

In Detroit's overtime squeaker against Boston the Tigers pushed across the winner in the eleventh against reliever Dick Radatz on Norm McAlliff's single and Dick Brown's bunt hit.

The Angels cashed in against Herbert with one out in the last of the ninth when pinch hitter Tom Burgess hit a bases-loaded sacrifice fly. Herbert yielded only four hits in the tough loss.

Osteen allowed only three hits until the Orioles rallied for their lone run with two out in the ninth.

Joe Hicks provided the Senators' big punch. He tripled off Robin Roberts in the seventh, scored the game's first run on Bob Johnson's single, and hit a clinching homer in the top of the ninth against Dick Hall.

$100,000 Classic Big Success

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLIFTON, N.J. (AP)—A group of amateur golf promoters starts out today to break a metropolitan attendance jinx while some strictly professional players try to break Arnold Palmer's grip on golf's money bags.

The first $100,000 Classic tournament at the Upper Montclair Country Club appears to have all the elements to make it a box office success—including Palmer, a golfer of great wealth and ability who appeals tremendously to spectators.

But the records show that in a decade or more, the only pro tournaments in the New York Metropolitan area to draw really big crowds were two U.S. opens—at Baltusrol in 1954 and at Winged Foot in 1959. In 1955 both the Cavalcade of Golf at Westfield, N.J., and the Long Island Rotary open brought disappointingly small crowds and were abandoned.

The Classic was conceived only seven months ago and much of the preparatory work has been done by members of the conservative Upper Montclair club, which never has held a major tournament.

The $100,000 jackpot, with $25,000 to the winner, assured a top-rate field. Most of the players here also will be going for the big one next week in the U.S. Open at Oakmont, Pa.

The field of about 140 also includes the current Open and PGA champions, Gene Littler and Jerry Barber, the entire 1961 U.S.

Ryder Cup team, and pros Gary Player of South Africa, Kel Nagle and Bruce Crampton of Australia and Stan Leonard and Al Balding from Canada.

Yesterday's Standouts

Pitching — Ralph Terry, Yankees, posted first shutout of year, allowing only four hits, striking out 10 and retiring 16 men in order at one stretch in 5-0 victory over Cleveland that sent New York into American League lead.

Batting — Joe Hicks, Senators, tripled and scored first run in seventh inning, then provided margin for 2-1 victory over Baltimore with ninth inning homer.

'Washers' Take Lead Away from 'Motors'

The Whirley Washers skipped ahead of the hotel duo that has been leading the Industrial Golf League for weeks and weeks and took a comfortable two and one-half point lead.

Starbrick Motors did the same thing last week but fell to third spot in this week's standings. Starbrick played with a substitute and an argument ensued as the by-laws state that no substitutes are allowed.

A rainy Tuesday night washed out all the scheduled matches and all that were not played must be played before Sunday night.

Ross Fisher turned in the lowest score during the seventh week of league play. He fired a 35 while Joe Brindis had a 36, Jim McCool had a 37, Ernie Sedon, Hal Conarro and Chink Collins all had 38; Keith Culbertson and Bob Walsch had 40s and John Smith and Tink Wolfe had 41s.

Seventh week results:
Keystone 11½, Warren Beverage 7½, Observer 7½, Connolly's 4½, Ludlow 7, Starbrick Motors 5, Whirley Washers 11, Exchange Hotel 1, Tommassoni 6½, Loranger's 1½, Penn Glade 8, Warren Super Market 4.

League standings:
Whirley Washers 60, Penn Glade 57½, Starbrick 56, Ludlow 50½, Exchange 49½, Warren Super Market 46, Genesee Beer 46, Observer 45, Carlson Motors 43, (No. 1) 40, Connolly's 39½, Tommassoni Nursery 39½, Dorcon 37½, Loranger's 36, VFW 34, Keystone 34, Crescent Beer 33½, New Process 19, Struthers (No. 2) 18, and Warren Beverage 10½.

Father-Son Have Meeting On AAU Mats

NEW YORK (AP) — Its only a little over a week to Father's Day and Ben Northrup is planning to give his dad a hammer lock for a present, if he gets a chance.

There's a good one that he will. Ben and his father, Dr. M. A. Northrup, are both entered in the 154-pound class at the National AAU wrestling championships being held at the New York Athletic Club. The odds are very good that they'll meet each other before the five-day meet is over.

Ben is 28, his father 53. Does Ben have any plans to take it easy on the old man if they meet on the mat?

"I can't afford to," said Ben with a smile. "First, he's too tough, and second, this is an elimination tournament. You've got to try for a fall against every opponent."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it: AXYDLBAAXR is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Meeting Set Tonight on Potomac River Basin Plan

MARTINSBURG, W.Va. (AP)—Another meeting to discuss proposed development of the Potomac River Basin was scheduled tonight in the Berkeley County Courthouse.

At a similar hearing Wednesday night in Hagerstown, Md., some 100 residents of Washington, Allegheny and Garrett Counties, Md., and nearby Pennsylvania voiced unanimous opposition to the proposal.

The meetings, sponsored by the U.S. Corps of Army Engineers, are to probe feelings on a proposal by the corps which calls for construction of 16 large dams and 418 smaller reservoirs along the Potomac River to supply water to metropolitan areas around Washington, D.C. The project, if approved, would be carried out over a 50-year period at a cost close to $500 million.

The proposed dams and watersheds would inundate some 35 miles of the old Chesapeake and Ohio Canal as well as 15,000 acres of land in Western Maryland and 11,600 acres of land in Virginia.

At Wednesday night's hearing, Col. Warren F. Johnson of the Engineers told those present that he could not guarantee additional land would be made available for recreational purposes to replace land which would be inundated by the dams.

Johnson also said he could not guarantee that areas around the proposed reservoirs would not be made worthless for recreational purposes by mud flats, which could develop when reservoir levels are lowered in the summer.

Under questioning, representatives of the U.S. Public Health Service, the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Interior admitted their agencies were not yet ready to endorse the project—either in its entirety or in part—until further study.

Meetings held recently in Chambersburg, Pa., and Hancock, Md., have produced similar reactions.

Agreement on Laos Coalition Seen Possible by Friday

By ANTOINE YARED

KHANG KHAY, Laos (AP)—Laos' three rival political princes met in the rebel-held Plaines Des Jarres today, and neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma said the long-awaited agreement on a coalition government might be reached Friday.

Souvanna said his first meeting with Prince Boun Oum of the right-wing Vientiane government and pro-Communist Prince Souphanouvong encountered little difficulty.

"If we continue to work in a similar atmosphere, I am sure we will reach a final agreement Friday," Souvanna said.

It was the princes' first meeting since January.

Boun Oum was accompanied to Khang Khay by his deputy premier and royal government strongman Gen. Phoumi Nosavan.

Souvanna's optimism contrasted sharply with a general feeling among diplomats and observers in Vientiane before the meeting that it had little chance of success.

Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi had given no advance indication that they would back down on the issue that broke up earlier attempts at forming a coalition under Souvanna. The conservative Vientiane leaders had insisted on retaining the defense and interior portfolios in a coalition government to give them control of the army and police.

Before leaving for Khang Khay, Phoumi declared once again that Souvanna can have these posts only if he can prove he is truly neutral and guarantees they will not fall into the hands of Souphanouvong's Pathet Lao.

Western diplomats generally feared that failure of the princes to agree would be followed by a new military drive by the Pathet Lao.

Souvanna has the backing of the United States, the Soviet Union and the other powers at the 14-nation Geneva conference on Laos. The United States hopes a government pledged to neutrality under Souvanna will take the Red threat off neighboring Thailand and end the need for U.S. troops there. The troops were rushed into Thailand after the Pathet Lao's recent military gains swept to the northeast Thai frontier.

Grace Backing Out Of Hitchcock Movie

NICE, France (AP)—Princess Grace of Monaco says she definitely will not play in Alfred Hitchcock's film "Marnie." She indicated she probably has retired from the movies permanently.

The former Grace Kelly announced two months ago that she would make her return to the screen this summer in the Hitchcock movie. Later the British director said he had postponed the production.

The newspaper Nice Matin, published an interview today with Princess Grace.

"On the one hand I will not have time and on the other I have been definitely influenced by the reaction provoked in Monaco at the announcement of my participation in the making of this film," she said.

"Such a 'vacation' devoted to the cinema would have been amusing for me, but under the condition that the prince (her husband, Prince Rainier) and our children be present. That is not possible, and I would not care to go without them. Making a film takes much time nowadays and 'Marnie' would take longer than I had thought."

Asked if she had definitely decided to abandon film making forever, the princess said:

"I would not like to use the word 'definite' but it is evident that the same problems would arise."

Gallant Young Midshipman Gladdens Cinderella, 70

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)— "My trip here has been just wonderful... beyond words," said 70-year-old Mrs. Lynedon Paul Noble of Wilkesburg, Pa., after being the guest of a Naval Academy midshipman from Pennsylvania during June week activities.

Mrs. Noble was taking in her first June week at the invitation of First Classman (senior) Edward S. Little of Rosemont, Pa., near Philadelphia. Little was one of 780 who graduated Wednesday from the academy.

"(Little) is the sort of young fellow that all Americans should be proud of," said Mrs. Noble who attended the social events, the hops and dances.

The meeting between Mrs. Noble and Little was the outgrowth of a letter she wrote last December to Rear Adm. John F. Davidson, academy superintendent, asking permission to get on the grounds to view the parades and ceremonies.

"I... never expect to have the honor of knowing a midshipman who could invite me," she wrote. After an exchange of letters between Navy officials and Mrs. Noble, she received a letter from Little which said:

"It would be unthinkable for a fellow Pennsylvanian to go unescorted during this very special week. It would be a real pleasure and honor for me to be your personal escort during your stay."

Alcoa, USW Resuming Negotiations

NEW YORK (AP)— Resumed contract negotiations between the United Steelworkers Union and the Aluminum Co. of America entered the second day today.

Bargaining resumed Wednesday following a two-week recess in which both sides studied their positions separately.

Before the recess management placed before the union men a counter-proposal which was not spelled out publicly.

An Alcoa spokesman said there is little likelihood that any major development will occur before next week.

Both sides agreed to refrain from public statements concerning the progress of negotiations.

The USW represents 27,000 employees of Alcoa, Kaiser Aluminum Chemical Co. and Reynolds Metals Co. Talks between the union and the latter two companies were scheduled to resume on or about June 18 here.

The Alcoa contract expires July 31.

Four Miners Hospitalized By Explosion

SALTSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Four miners remained hospitalized today with burns suffered in a gas explosion in a coal mine near this Indiana County town.

The blast occurred Wednesday inside the Seanor Coal Co. pit about two miles southwest of Saltsburg.

Listed in undetermined condition at Indiana Hospital was Victor Trenski of Avonmore.

Reported in satisfactory condition were Paul Legarsky, 35, of Apollo; Harry Woodring, 36, of Saltsburg, R. D. 1; and Harold Snyder, 32, of Vandergrift, R. D. 2.

Charles Valero, 49, of Harrison City, also was burned in the explosion and was released after treatment at Jeannette District Memorial Hospital.

State Mine Inspector G. S. Struble said the explosion may have been caused by a spark from machinery, but he said the actual cause was not immediately determined.

The mine, he said, was not damaged. The section where the blast occurred was sealed off.
